Walsh, Long, Pelletier and Doherty Democratic Winners—Light Vote

BOSTON, April 28.—The "regular" slates of republican and democratic candidates for delegates-at-large to the national conventions were elected by substantial majorities in yesterday's presidential primary, according to the complete vote today.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, led the republican "big four" who headed the list in the order named by Speaker Frederick H. Gillet of the national house of representatives, former Senator W. Murray Crane and Edward A. Thurston.

Both morning and afternoon sessions of the local parochial schools were suspended today owing to the storm. The public school children were not interested in the 2-2-2 signal as they are enjoying their annual spring vacation all this week.

At least six Brattleboro merchants and manufacturers have received bank drafts from an unknown person, accompanied by an unsigned typewritten letter saying that the drafts represent money taken dishonestly "many years ago." One of the drafts was for $500, two were for $25 each, two for $25 each and one for $15.

NO FURTHER CONFUSION

City Clerk is Relieved of all Duties Connected With Elections

The city clerk of the city of Lowell does not retain any duties in connection with elections, as a result of the creation of a bi-partisan election commission. It has been ruled by J. Weston Allen, attorney-general of the commonwealth. The election commission, it has been ruled by J. Weston Allen, attorney-general of the commonwealth. The election commission has full control of all matters pertaining to elections in this city, the attorney-general says.

A copy of Mr. Allen's opinion to this effect reached Lowell today and clears up considerable confusion that has surrounded the powers and duties of the new commission since its creation a month ago.

Stephen Flynn, city clerk, desiring to have some formal ruling on the matter by the state's legal authorities, had requested an opinion on the subject through the office of the secretary of the commonwealth. Today Mr. Flynn received a copy of the opinion given the secretary by the attorney-general. Mr. Allen says that it is clear that it was the intention of the legislature to give to the election commission of Lowell powers similar and inasmuch as there is no specific provision withholding from the local commission any of the powers and duties formerly enjoyed by other city officials, the act should be construed to place the entire control of elections in the hands of the election commission.

The attorney-general's opinion clears up a matter that has been hanging fire for some time. City Clerk Flynn has continued to perform those duties not specifically outlined in the act to be performed by the election commission, but the opinion received today

SPRINGFIELD INCREASES POPULATION 40,412

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Population statistics announced today included: Springfield, Mass., 129,338; Fitchburg, Mass., 41,013; Gardner, Mass., 16,960; Elmira, N. Y., 45,305; Niagara Falls, N. Y., 50,706. Increases: Springfield 40,412 or 45.4 per cent. over 1910; Fitchburg 3157, or 5.4 per cent.; Gardner 2261, or 15.4 per cent.; Elmira 5128, or 21.9 per cent.; Niagara Falls 20,315, or 68.7 per cent. Youngstown, Ohio, 132,358, increase 53,292, or 67.4 per cent.; Portsmouth, Ohio, 32,011, increase 9530, or 40.6 per cent.; Kalamazoo, Mich., 45,555, increase 9421, or 23.9 per cent.

AT COST PLUS EXPENSE

Humphrey O'Sullivan inaugurates Campaign to Reduce Cost of Clothing

The Merrimack Clothing Co., through its founder and principal owner, Humphrey O'Sullivan, will launch a campaign next Friday morning whereby the men, women and boys of this city will have an opportunity to purchase wearing apparel at cost plus the expenses of selling the same.

The campaign will continue for 10 days and it is expected that in that period a big step will have been taken in the drive to bring down the cost of clothing in this city. The Merrimack Clothing Co. management has made preparations for one of the busiest periods of its 26 years' history and there is little doubt but what the public will take full advantage of the opportunity.

By sacrificing a portion of his profits, Mr. O'Sullivan will be able to sell clothing at almost cost price, the only additional charge being the small incidental expenses entering into the actual sale of the goods.

The campaign is designed to furnish co-operation to the government in its endeavors to reduce the cost of living and inasmuch as clothing expenses are vital factors in the family budget, Mr. O'Sullivan's unique campaign will undoubtedly bear fruitful results.

As soon as the store opens next Friday morning the Merrimack Clothing Co. will put practically its entire stock on sale on the cost-plus basis selling expense plan. The drive will continue until the end of the following week.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

Three Call Firemen Examined by City Physician—One Callman Resigns

Three of the eleven call firemen who have been notified by Commissioner John P. Salmon that the city council has voted to approve the abolition of their positions have taken a physical examination with a view of joining the permanent force of the department and have been found physically unfit for the duties of a permanent fireman by City Physician Michael A. Tighe.

The three men who have been examined and found unable to withstand the rigors of a permanent fireman's life are Frederick D. Manning, John J. Frazier and Peter Sheehan. All of these men are over 50 years old and Messrs. Manning and Frazier are in the vicinity of 60.

Another development of interest in connection with Commissioner Salmon's efforts to have the call force completely abolished is the receipt of the resignation of Frank H. Harris, one of the 11 former callmen.

Mr. Harris has sent formal notice of his resignation to Commissioner Salmon and says that he is willing to turn in his badge at any time the commissioner designates.

Mr. Salmon sent out formal notices Monday afternoon to all the former members of the call force notifying them that their positions had been abolished and that if they wished hearings they must apply for them within three days. So far none of them has asked for a hearing.

It is understood that several other members of the old force have taken or are about to take a physical examination, but Mr. Salmon has not yet received any reports of the result of such examinations.

William N. Flagg, another member of the old call force, has been examined with the idea of applying for a pension. He was injured while responding to an alarm some 20 months ago. The first intimation that he wished to be pensioned came to Commissioner Salmon when Flagg applied for a physical examination. Dr. Tighe reports he is physically incompetent to serve longer as a callman. He has not yet sent a petition to the city council to be pensioned.

BARBER DIDN'T SHOW

But Daylight Saving Plan Didn't Have Anything to Do With it

The case of Ernest J. Barber of Nashua, N. H., who was recently fined $10 on a charge of violating the motor vehicle laws and given one week in which to clear up his indebtedness to the county, was called on continuance in police court today and Barber declared defaulted when he failed to appear. The court took into consideration the fact that the non-existence of daylight saving in New Hampshire might have caused Barber to be late, but after two hours it was decided that Barber didn't intend to be present.

RETURNS FROM OHIO

With All But 1205 Precincts in Harding Has Lead of 10,000 Over Wood

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 28.—Additional returns from yesterday's presidential preference primary election in Ohio today gave Senator Warren G. Harding a lead of almost 10,000 votes over Maj. General Leonard Wood. The vote from 4677 out of a total of 5882 precincts in the state gave Harding 102,762 and Wood 92,376.

Although their names were not printed on the ballots, Hiram Johnson of California received 12,765 votes, and Herbert Hoover of California received 5253 votes in 3140 scattering precincts.

The name of Gov. James M. Cox of Ohio was the only one appearing on the democratic presidential ballot. In several districts over the state, however, the name of William G. McAdoo was written in. All democratic candidates for delegate to the national convention were pledged to Cox.

MADE AUTO TRIP TO GLOUCESTER

"The Corporation," a group of about 25 senior boys of the Lowell high school enjoyed an auto trip to Gloucester on Monday leaving Lowell at 8.30. Mr. McKinley, of the faculty, accompanied the happy crowd of young men who made the trip in four machines. Gloucester was reached about noon where the party had dinner at the Belmont hotel. During the dinner Mr. Gorman, one of the autoists, entertained with piano selections. After the dinner the party proceeded to Manchester-by-the-Sea where a ball game was played with Mr. McKinley as umpire. About 4.30 they set out on the return trip, and took the North Shore drive, reaching Lowell at 7.30 o'clock. Those in the party were Mr. McKinley, Raymond Crowley, Herman Parent, Eli Rostler, John Brosnan, Francis Pare, Alder Bourgeois, Theodore Parthenios, James Brosnan, Frederick Frawley, John McQuillie, Joseph Pare, Francis Saunders, Wallace Logan, Leo Emoud, Edward Donohue, James Barrett, Warren Flood, Francis O'Donnell, Frank Gorman, Walter MacDonough, Raymond Sullivan, John Roark and Frank McInerney.

Boston & Maine Officials Hold Out Little Hope For Abolition of Middlesex Street Crossing

Solicitor Alexander and Engineer Dow Tell Chamber of Commerce Committee That Railroad Is On Brink of Insolvency and To Consider Local Proposition Would Be Criminal—Plans Drawn in 1914 Would Cost $3,500,000, They Say—Committee Obdurate, However, and Will Push Agitation to the Limit

Absolutely no hope for the abolition of the Middlesex street grade crossing at the present time was held out by officials of the Boston & Maine railroad this forenoon at a conference held under the auspices of a special committee of the Lowell chamber of commerce. Moreover, it was stated by these officials that elimination of grade crossings "is not being done" these days and "whatever action the railroad takes in the future will be governed almost solely by its financial status."

The road was pictured on the brink of insolvency in spite of the fact that it is temporarily free from receivership, but this did not materially affect the intent of the committee, which

JUDGE NOT TO BLAME DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

If Peter Had Behaved Himself Everything Would Have Been All Right

"I got married through you, Judge, and now I'm getting separated through you," remarked Peter Grenier pensively in police court today after Judge Enright had found him guilty of assault and battery on his wife, imposed a $10 fine and ordered him to remain away from the family hearth—for the present at least.

"Just what do you mean by that statement?" queried the court. "I can't recall having had any connection with your marriage."

"Oh, yes, it was through you that I got married," insisted Peter. "Don't you remember that she had me pinched for drunkenness three years ago, and you made us get married?"

"Yes," remarked the court reflectively. "I do recall it now. But you were not arraigned for drunkenness—you were called on a statutory charge for living with this woman unlawfully."

"Furthermore, it was on your request that I allowed you to get married—I fully intended sending you to jail."

"Yes, that's right, Your Honor," came back Peter. "I hope that was

Have You Rheumatism, Kidney, Liver or Bladder Trouble?

Pain or dull ache in the back is often evidence of kidney trouble. It is Nature's timely warning to show you that the track of health is not clear.

really the way it happened. And now I've got to leave her—what?"

"That seems to be the best thing to do under the circumstances," replied the court. "She says that she's afraid to live with you any longer after being assaulted."

"Well, then I suppose I'll have to be so," concluded Peter and with that he left the court room.

Peter's conviction on an assault charge resulted from his wife's story to the effect that yesterday he had beaten her because she was holding a conversation with a woman acquaintance who was not numbered among Peter's friends.

Peter said that wasn't the reason at all. The whole trouble had been caused by the fact that his step-daughter insisted upon going to the movies 'most every night and returning home in the wee small hours.

Other Cases
Convicted on charges of drunkenness and also frightening and annoying several little girls, James McLaughlin of this city was sentenced to three months in the house of correction. McLaughlin said he couldn't remember anything at all about it.

Charged with the unlawful use of registered milk bottles, Thomas H. Sherlock pleaded not guilty and was granted a continuance for one week. Sherlock was arraigned on five separate counts.

Joseph Delanis of Billerica, an ex-service man, was convicted of assault and battery on Michael Smigelsky also of Billerica, and his case continued until tomorrow for sentence. The assault resulted from an argument over the pasturing of some cows, according to testimony.

MATRIMONIAL
Mr. Frank M. Of the 35 republican delegates, including those at large, 25 are unpledged, but several of these have announced their intention to vote for Major General Leonard Wood. Two are pledged to Wood and four were described on the ballot as favorable to him. The entire democratic delegation is unpledged.

The complete vote for candidates for delegates-at-large was:

Republicans
Lodge, 75,428.
Gillett, 52,254.
Crane, 60,227.
Thurston, 45,947.
Frothingham, 32,563.
Fuller, 30,439.
Lawson, 18,321.
McCall, 31,493.
Wood, 12,592.

Democrats
Walsh, 22,291.
Long, 18,229.
Pelletier, 19,723.
Doherty, 15,122.
O'Connell, 6114.

The "big four" republican candidates carried 24 of the 35 cities. In the other 11 Lodge had the highest vote except in North Adams, where Crane headed the ticket with Lodge second.

Of the individual candidates, Senator Lodge led the ticket in all but five cities. Crane led in North Adams and Pittsfield, his home county. Speaker Gillett led in his home city of Springfield and the nearby cities of Northampton and Chicopee.

Former Governor Samuel W. McCall who declared himself in favor of the nomination of Herbert Hoover, made his best showing in several suburban cities he finished fifth, only a few votes behind fourth place. Congressman Alvan T. Fuller, who publicly pledged himself to vote for Wood, finished among the first four in eight

The two delegates pledged to Wood were elected in the sixth district, the home of Congressman Lutkin, manager of the Wood campaign. In this state, the low Wood delegate in this district had a lead of 1151 over the higher unpledged candidate. In Bourne, the little Cape Cod town where General Wood has a legal residence, Lodge polled the largest republican vote with Frothingham, who was favorable to Wood, second; Crane third, and Fuller fourth.

No other republican aspirants for the presidential nomination made a campaign in Massachusetts. During the campaign Senator Hiram Johnson's headquarters repudiated endorsements of certain candidates by Johnson local organizations.

Chairman O'Leary Repeats

The democratic contests for district delegates were largely factional. Michael A. O'Leary, chairman of the democratic state committee was defeated in the eighth district, running a poor third in a field of five. In the first district, District Attorney Joseph B. Ely, who sought to overturn the "regular" democratic state, ran fourth in a field of seven.

An exceptionally light vote was cast throughout the state. Senator Lodge, leading the republicans, polled 75,428 votes against 317,774 votes for Gov. Coolidge at the last gubernatorial contest. Senator Walsh, who headed the democrats yesterday received 22,291 votes against 102,673 democratic votes in the race for governor.

Local Results in Primaries

of the lightest primary days in years. The lack of contest in the democratic ranks and overwhelming sentiment for winning candidates on the republican side contributed largely to the general apathy.

For delegates-at-large Lowell democrats named David I. Walsh, Richard H. Long, Joseph C. Pelletier and Daniel F. Doherty. A fifth candidate, former Congressman O'Connell, ran far behind. Alternate delegates-at-large chosen by local democrats were Susan W. Fitzgerald, Mary A. Carson, Mary Keegan Shuman and Helen G. Thayer. They were unopposed. Alternate district delegates chosen were Katherine E. McCarthy of this city and Anna L. McGowan of Woburn. Again there was no opposition. The Lowell democratic nominees were successful throughout the district.

James Heslin, whose name was written in on the democratic ballot by voters of wards 1 and 2, received a total of nine votes for district delegates.

On the republican side the "Big Four" among the candidates for delegates-at-large were successful—Senator Lodge, Speaker Gillet, former Senator Crane and Edward Thurston. Frothingham, Fuller, Lawson, McCall and Wood ran in the order named.

Alternate republican delegates-at-large had no contest and the four successful men included Butler Ames, of this city. The other three were Chandler Bullock, Gordon W. Gordon and Butler H. Wilson. Alternate district delegates chosen by fifth district voters were Kimball G. Colby and Wilford D. Gray. Louis Ellenwood ran third. The democratic delegates both from the state and this district are unpledged. The republican delegates-at-

Try the Bitro-Phosphate Health System—$3.00 Guarantee

NEW YORK—If you are feeling run-down, weak, nervous, tired-in-the-morning, and generally ailing, these are the symptoms that should warn you to take care of your health.

Four persons in every ten are needing more phosphorus in their bodies. When you see thin and fretful people, or those who are anemic, pale, frail, oft despondent or lacking in energy, you may look for the need of certain elements that make for a strong constitution.

Some people, after relying upon preparations composed chiefly of salts, quinine, drastic drugs, iron, calomel, cod-liver oil, etc., wonder why they do not benefit. That is easily explained by the fact that such persons need the phosphoric element, which is a most potent essential to health and contained in BITRO-PHOSPHATE, the famous health preparation. Now obtainable everywhere.

The right thing for you to do is make a trial of BITRO-PHOSPHATE beginning at once. It is not a patent medicine; the formula is prescribed by many physicians for the ailments and weaknesses mentioned above.

With every box of BITRO-PHOSPHATE, are a few simple health rules and a 30-day guarantee. Buy a box of BITRO-PHOSPHATE. It is sold and recommended by A. W. Dows and all good druggists everywhere.

large are understood to favor Governor Coolidge as their first choice for the presidency. Messrs. Dunbar and Pearson, district delegates, favor General Wood.

First returns were received at city hall last night at 9.45 and the last precinct had been heard from at midnight. Yesterday's primary was the first conducted under the auspices of the new election commission and was carried through without a hitch. Tabulating was done, as usual, in the city clerk's office and City Clerk Flynn and Assistant City Clerk McCarthy were on hand to assist the commission.

The number of clerks employed to tabulate the returns has been reduced practically in halves by the new commission and there were only five on hand last evening. Usually there are 10 or 11. The general lack of interest in the outcome of the primaries was indicated by the almost total absence of spectators watching the tabulations.

LAKE STEAMER TO BE MOORED

DETROIT—Floating taverns may solve the hotel problem here. The lake steamer Noronic of the Northern Steamship Co.'s fleet, will be moored at the foot of Brush street and used as a hotel—"The Noronic Floating Inn"—from May 1 to June 10, when the vessel will resume its regular run to Duluth. In the fall, from Sept. 18 to Dec. 4, the Noronic will be back on duty as a hotel. She has 250 rooms. Special-priced meals and dinner dances will be advertised. If this experiment is a success, other lake boats will be put into commission as hostelrys between seasons.

Headaches and Dizziness

RED PILLS for Pale and Weak Women, are a wonderful remedy, indeed. I am in a position to make this assertion, as I have obtained marvelous results from their use, after having tried other remedies in vain. For five years I had been suffering from the usual annoying complaints which accompany the critical age, and I was getting weaker all the time. I had violent headaches, and such bad attacks of dizziness that I had to lay down; I took RED PILLS, and as I gradually got stronger my various ailments disappeared, and I took on weight. Now I enjoy the best of health.

SPRING AILMENTS

Relieved By a Well-Known Medicine of Superlative Merit

Spring ailments are due to impure, impoverished, deoxygenated blood. Among them are pimples, boils and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, a run-down condition of the system, and sometimes chronic weaknesses made worse.

Hood's Sarsaparilla combines the roots, bark, herbs, berries and other medicinal that have been found, in many years of intelligent observation, to be most effective in treatment of these ailments.

Successful physicians prescribe these ingredients for diseases of the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, and in cases where alternative and tonic effects are needed.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the spring medicine that purifies, enriches and revitalizes your blood, increasing power of resistance to disease.

For a laxative take Hood's Pills.—Adv.

NEWEST BLOUSES IN BLACK ARE SHOWN

Some chic new blouses have been developed in black this season. Black lace and net are used for elaborate blouses of knee-length, worn with skirts of satin or silk. Many are made of black georgette or crepe de chine. Black cotton blouses are also very smart. Black organdie waists are trimmed with collars of white organdie, white black dotted Swiss blouses have collars of white batiste or organdie.

MANY OF OUR WEDDING CUSTOMS ARE RELICS OF THE LONG AGO

Throwing old shoes after a bridal couple dates back to the Old Testament. When a man transferred a piece of property he took off his shoe and handed it to the purchaser to seal the bargain. In the marriage ceremony, it has come to mean that the parents give up all dominion over their daughter.

The throwing of rice is an old Hindoo custom emblematic of life and fruitfulness. At present, it is a symbol of good wishes.

"Best Man" Custom

In ancient times when the young man was unable to arrange with the parents for the purchase of the girl, he would run off with her and hide. Many times he employed the help of a trusted friend. From these incidents comes the well-known custom of the wedding journey of hidden destination. The trusted friend of long ago is the best man of today who still helps with the arrangements of the marriage.

Significance of Rings

The wedding ring is a relic of barbarism. It signified the hand by which the woman was bound to her lord and master. From this time also dates the custom of leading the bride to the altar. When a woman married, she sacrificed herself, her liberty, and her life to the man. The ring now is symbolic of the transference of property and when it is placed upon the bride's finger, it indicates that the man endows her with his worldly goods.

Rich Wear Flowers

The wearing of orange blossoms originated with the Saracens and was brought to Europe by the Crusaders. It signified fruitfulness to the Orientals. When the western nations adopted the flower, it became significant of wealth and high station since the scarcity of these flowers placed them beyond the reach of poor people.

Peru will wage war on malaria by treating patients, protecting residents of malarial regions, destroying germ-bearing insects, and draining low lands.

EXPERTS TELL CITIES' THREE GREAT NEEDS

N.E.A. Staff Special

CINCINNATI, April 28.—Here is the last word in city-planning as formulated by the national conference on city planning. To make your city conform to the modern standards of municipal efficiency, official policy must recognize, according to civic experts who have just met here in convention, the following necessities:

The zone system.
Rail and water terminal facilities.
Street traffic control.

Zoning was explained as the dividing of a community into residential, business and manufacturing districts. Even the size of dwellings and apartment houses are restricted for the good of the entire community.

"Zoning of cities will have great influence in the life of cities," says Plavet Shurtliff of Boston, secretary of the conference.

"On the Pacific Coast, I understand, industries are avoiding those cities which have no zoning ordinance."

Thus far New York city, St. Louis, Portland, Ore., and Los Angeles, have zoning laws.

For solution of the terminal problem, the following recommendations: Unified control and operation within city limits. Municipal control of intra-city lines not necessary if such unified control can be obtained.

Present wasteful duplication of terminals cannot be permitted to continue.

Shippers should be free from dependence on one road for cars.

All spurs should be common users. Tracks should be served by belt lines. There must be adequate freight yards. Railroad lines may be diverted around the city limits so that through trains will not have to enter heart of city.

Rail and water terminals should be treated as a single problem.

Elimination of grade crossings.

E. M. Goodrich, engineer, of New York, urges eventual segregation of traffic, that is, street cars overhead or in subways with street levels left for motor and other vehicular travel.

He suggested establishment of private rights of way by trucking interests where freight is handled by trucks; cutting off of building corner and setting in of curbs; enlargements or curb radius at corners; use of pairs of one-way streets; designation of streets to handle certain types of traffic, and elimination of parking on crowded streets.

R. H. LONG CONTRACTS

Hearing to be Given by Committee of Congress

To the Editor of the Sun—Congressman William J. Graham, chairman of the congressional committee on war expenditures, at our request, will give a hearing in Washington concerning our war contracts on May 4.

Nearly all Massachusetts papers published unfavorable reports last year about our war contracts, some papers stating that we made large profits. We asked for the hearing to bring out the truth concerning our war contracts, and at the hearing we shall undertake to show that we abandoned our regular business and took competitive contracts for nearly $40,000,000, and none of these contracts were cost-plus. We made for the government military supplies that we had never made before and that had not before been made extensively by anyone in this state. We shall show that we saved the government millions of dollars; that our prices were lower than competitors; that we did all the contracts required and also expended many hundred thousands of dollars not required by the contracts. In every case where there was a question between service to the government or profit to the contractor we gave service to the government.

We shall show that the results were largely because the workers, both men and women, in this state are very skillful in manufacturing, and in our factories they always did their part to help win the war.

Will you please give publicity to this letter, and to such of the testimony at the hearings as you think is due to the public, having in mind the wide publicity given our contracts last year?

Very truly yours,
R. H. LONG COMPANY,
RICHARD H. LONG,
Framingham, Mass., April 24.

THE WAY TO GET A BIGGER JOB

BY ROGER W. BARSON
World-Famous Statistician

John Jones has a pretty good job, yet he is dissatisfied.

He spends a lot of time and energy fussing because he isn't in some other job where he could "manage men." He just knows he'd blossom out into a glorious success if he had another place, a larger opportunity.

We can understand him all right, because we've often felt that way ourselves.

Yet it all reminds me of the farmer who starved to death trying to raise wheat on what proved to be one of the richest diamond mines in the world.

John Jones clamors for a bigger job when he already has the biggest job in the world!

He would "manage men." Let him take John Jones in hand, lay out his time for him, train him, and keep him headed in the right direction.

When he has done that, he will be given others to manage.

Let him undertake the task of making "John Jones, human," stick to the part that "John Jones, idealist," has laid out for him.

Let him make John Jones do his work better than anyone else.

When he has learned to get a day's work done every day, has got the habit of doing everything a little better than seems necessary, and has learned to keep a cheerful face turned ever toward the goal, he needn't worry about being recognized.

He will then stand head and shoulders above his fellows.

Moreover, what applies to John Jones applies to you and me also.

The 1919 peanut crop was much below normal. Alabama produced 6,819,000 bushels compared to 112,459,000 in 1918.

ASTHMA IS DANGEROUS

Folly To Disregard Its Warning

Asthma is not only a disagreeable affliction but a dangerous one. The constant difficult breathing, the choked up air passages, the struggle for air, the loss of rest, combine to force a great strain on the nervous system and heart—often too great a strain to stand.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a condition or to continually treat with ordinary narcotic medicines, drugs, inhalers, smokes, or douches which merely give temporary relief from the choking paroxysms and do not relieve or correct the real cause of the trouble.

Instead get from Liggett's or any drugstore a small bottle of Oxidane (essential oil) tablets and take one at short intervals whenever distress is felt and one on going to bed. Instant relief is usually felt and in addition the effect of consistent treatment is to gradually bring about a greatly improved health condition as the symptoms of Asthma disappear forever. Oxidane is the successful prescription of a Worcester, Mass., physician and its treatment of Asthma, even in the very worst forms has probably never been excelled.

Liggett and Lowell Pharmacy sells it and patients find it a safe, pleasant and inexpensive treatment to use.—Adv.

Think what Labor owes to Him!

UNTIL His thirtieth year the Master was the Carpenter of Nazareth.

Could He possibly forget those carpenter years when the years of His ministry began? Could the men who labor with their hands ever be far from His thought and prayers?

To such men, oppressed and driven, men bent by toil, with hopeless hearts, He spoke a phrase that flamed with power.

"You are sons of God," He told them.

Sons of God—brothers of their rulers and employers; with an equal right to happiness, to comfort and opportunity. All the hopes of Labor in all the centuries had their beginning in that splendid thought.

The Churches cooperating under the name of the Interchurch World Movement offer the program of the Master, and His Golden Rule.

"Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them."

By that rule the industry of the future must be directed. Its products must be not merely goods, but good; not merely wealth but happiness and character and joy.

If you believe these things, you believe in one of the fundamental purposes of the Churches and of their agent, the Interchurch World Movement.

And you have this month your chance to help. Whether you labor with hand or brain, whether you are inside the Church or out, you are a sharer in the benefits of the influence of Jesus Christ.

Help to make that influence the ruling spirit of the modern world. Help to make industry a spiritual enterprise, where men shall work together not in envy but in mutual respect—as brothers all, and "sons of God."

NEW JERSEY RETURNS

1832 Out of 2025 Districts
Give Wood Lead of 332
Over Johnson

NEWARK, N. J., April 28.—Major General Leonard Wood was leading Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California by only 332 votes in the New Jersey preferential presidential primary contest at 11 o'clock this morning. Revised returns showed the Californian had cut down his opponent's lead by 406 since 7 o'clock.

Returns for 1832 out of 2025 election districts, gave Wood 43,374 and Johnson 43,042.

Incomplete returns indicated that Wood had carried 15 out of the 21 counties in the state. Wood's vote was heaviest in the rural districts of the central and southern part of the state, while Johnson polled heavily in the industrial districts of the north. United States Senators Walter E. Edge and Joseph S. Freylinghuysen, pledged to the presidential choice of the voters as expressed at the primary, have been elected as members of the republican "big four" by substantial pluralities over their opponents. Former Governor Edward C. Stokes, pledged to Wood, seems assured of third place. Former Acting Governor William N. Ruman, pledged to Wood, is leading in the race for fourth place, although City Commissioner Thomas L. Raymond of New-

SAGAMORE CAMPERS ANNUAL DANCE

Everything is in readiness for the annual dancing party of the Sagamore Campers in Lincoln hall this evening and an exceptionally enjoyable evening is promised to those who attend. Owing to the fact that most of the club members have been in the service during the past few years, the annual dancing party of the organization has not been held, and this year it is planned to make the affair more attractive than ever. ## MATRIMONIAL

A pretty wedding took place this morning when Mr. Stephen Curtis Garrity, a well known young man of this city and Miss Catherine Teresa Sharkey, the popular soloist at the Sacred Heart church, were united in the bonds of matrimony, the ceremony being performed at a high nuptial mass celebrated at 10 o'clock at the Sacred Heart church by the pastor, Rev. John P. Flynn, O.M.I. During the service appropriate hymns were sung by Messrs. John McMahon, George Kerwin and Andrew McCarthy, while a violin obligato was given by Mr. Frank Deligan, Mr. William McCarthy presiding at the organ. The bride wore white satin with georgette and Irish lace and veil caught up with lilies of the valley and she carried bridal roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Lucy Sharkey, who was attired in pink satin with pearl trimmings and carried pink roses. The best man was Mr. Martin P. McCarthy. At the close of the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride, 100 Bourne street, where a wedding breakfast was served by the caterer, followed by a brief reception. The ushers at the home were Messrs. John Frawley and John W. Sharkey. Upon their return from an extended honeymoon trip to Washington and Baltimore the happy couple, pledged to Wood; Mulford J. Ballard of East Orange and Thomas R. Layden of Paterson, both pledged to Johnson and former United States Attorney General John W. Griggs, pledged to Wood, are following close behind in the order named.

Gov. Edward I. Edwards, who has announced that he would carry the fight against prohibition into the floor of the San Francisco convention was elected head of the democratic "big four." Democratic delegates-at-large were elected without opposition. Democratic voters did not have an opportunity to register their choice for president, there being no candidates' names on the ballot, although all of the "big four" and virtually all of the district delegates are pledged to the candidacy of Gov. Edwards.

St. Martin's church at Otter River, Mass., was the scene of a pretty wedding Monday when Mr. Clarence E. Burns and Miss Mary C. Fitzgerald, two well known young people of this city, were united in the bonds of matrimony. The bride wore white satin with silver and pearl trimmings and carried bridal roses and sweet peas. She was attended by Miss Nora T. Dunn of Otter River, her cousin, who was attired in old rose georgette with hat to match and carried pink tea roses and sweet peas. The best man was Mr. George E. Murphy of this city, a close friend of the groom. At the close of the ceremony a reception was tendered the happy couple at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dunn at Otter River and present guests from Lowell, Malden, Boston, Gardner and other places. After an extended honeymoon trip the couple will make their home at 53 Queen street, this city. Mr. Burns is a correspondent for the Lowell Bleachery while Mrs. Burns is a former bookkeeper at the Middlesex Safe Deposit and Trust Co., and both count a host of friends in this city.

Straus-Derby

At noon today Mr. Emerille Straus and Miss Beatrice Derby were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride, 222 Pine street, by Rev. E. P. West, pastor of the Chestnut Street Baptist church. The couple who were unattended left at the close of the ceremony on a wedding trip and upon their return June 1 they will make their home at 16 Bond street.

Hoot-Jacob

Mr. Joseph Hoot and Miss Maria Jacob were married this afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Joseph's rectory, the ceremony being performed by the pastor, Rev. Eugene Turcotte, O.M.I. The bride wore white georgette and carried white roses. The witnesses were Messrs. Napoleon Hoot and J. B. Racette, father and uncle of the bridegroom and bride respectively. At the close of the ceremony a wedding dinner was served

From Thin to Plump— Girls

The expressions of happiness and gratitude of several of his young lady patients for whom he prescribed the recently successful flesh forming product, known as three grain hypo-nutrient tablets, is related by a physician, one of the medical publications and it comes as a surprise to the ordinary layman to learn the heart throbs of distress which seems to affect so many of the young people who are abnormally thin. Also to know that the weight can be so readily increased by the use, regularly for several months, of this powerful, healthy, pleasant, and obtainable of the best of all products in sealed packages with complete instructions for self-administration.

at the home of the groom's parents, 120 Allen street, where a reception will be held this evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hoot will make their home at 120 Allen street.

Hamel-Gauthier
Mr. Joseph Oscar Hamel and Miss Germaine Gauthier were married April 28 at St. Louis church by Rev. J. L. Lachance. The witnesses were Messrs. J. Gauthier and John Young. At the close of the ceremony the couple left on a honeymoon trip and upon their return they will make their home at 46 Austin street.

Page-Swan

Mr. Freeman E. Page and Miss Annie M. Swan were married April 27 at the parsonage of the German Street P.M. church, 15 Elmwood street by Rev. N. W. Matthews. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Cole.

FARMERS' BALL FRIDAY
The farmers' ball, to be conducted under the auspices of the Sacred Heart Social club, at the parochial hall, Friday evening, promises to be one of the most enjoyable social successes, yet sponsored by this young and enterprising organization.

Many novel features, wherein "Life on the Farm" will be intelligently depicted, have been arranged for the occasion. The grand march will be an enjoyable feature of the evening's festivities. Valuable prizes will be awarded the winners in this event. Judging from the large number of entries in this contest, a delightful evening is assured. His Honor, Mayor Perry D. Thompson, Hon. James B. Casey, Rep. Thomas J. Corbett and Post Commander Luther B. Faulkner have kindly consented to act as judges of the prize-features march.

In connection with the farmers' ball, the public is most cordially invited, by the committee on arrangements, to witness the street parade tomorrow (Thursday) evening. James E. Burns has been chosen marshal of the parade, and has appointed Michael J. Blaney, chief aid, and Edward Jennings, chief of staff. The parade will start about 8 o'clock. In addition to the hayracks, a Ford tractor kindly loaned by the Ford Motor Co., will be a novel and interesting feature of the parade.

She Is Voted the Prettiest and Fairest of 300 "Red-Heads"

BERKELEY, Cal., April 27.—The heroine of the annual "Parthenia," the University of California college girls' open air spring masque this year, had to be red-headed, so the management called together the 300 Italian blondes of the college and chose the fairest of them all. She is Miss Marion McCreary, a Berkeley girl. The hundred who saw the allegory voted her not only the "prettiest red-head" in the college but the fairest member of the cast of over 1000 girls.

Middlesex Street Crossing

abolition of the Middlesex street crossing, and these were explained by Engineer Dow, Mr. Alexander said they are the same ones drawn in 1911 and brought up to date in regard to estimated cost. This cost, he said, for a four-track plan, is today in the neighborhood of $3,500,000. This may be compared, if you please, with the estimated cost of the plans submitted six years ago by City Engineer Stephen Kearney, which was $615,000, exclusive of land damages.

Although the plans were spread out upon a table and explained by Mr. Dow, they were there more as a curiosity. For Mr. Alexander held out no hope for their development or crystallization into actual work.

Asked when he thought the road

Entirely New Way to Banish Superfluous Hair

(Really Removes Roots and All)
Why should any woman continue to wear an ugly, humiliating growth of hair on her face, now that it is known this can be completely and quickly removed, roots and all, by the new phenolactone process? The process is not to be compared at all with the depilatory, electrical or shaving methods. Phenolactone is non-odorous, non-irritating, non-poisonous—so harmless it could be eaten without any bad effect. Best of all, the hairs come out entire, even the roots, before one's very eyes. The skin is left as smooth and hair-free as a child's.

Anyone who purchases a stick of phenolactone from the druggist and follows the simple directions, is bound to be pleased and delighted.—Adv.

deficit of $6,175,178.15 and in 1919, last year, at a net deficit of $5,711,032.11. This shows that a little better condition prevailed last year than during the year just previous, but the road is running into a hole just as fast as its engines can speed it and unless there is every possible bit of co-operation on the part of communities served by the Boston & Maine and the most careful expenditure of every dollar, the road will again become insolvent.

Mr. Alexander spoke of the return of the road to private control and the government guarantee against operation at a deficit for six months, beginning March 1. "If the government had not made this guarantee," he said, "I believe the road would have been bankrupt inside of 30 days."

Chairman Butler asked if the financial condition of the road should be the only consideration in the question of the abolition of the crossing.

"No, that should not be the only consideration," replied Mr. Alexander, "but if the road needed the demands of all the communities which seek changes in their railroad accommodations, the system would become bankrupt in short order."

Elements of Danger

James J. Owens spoke at length regarding the elements of danger and the great public inconvenience at the Middlesex street crossing. "Not only is it dangerous and a blockade to traffic, but the railroad traffic has increased there 50 per cent., I am told," he said, "since the new round houses and yards were opened at Middlesex Village."

"The district in the vicinity of the depot has been ripe for the proper development for some time," he continued, "and yet we can do no building there and no changing over because we do not know what the Boston & Maine is going to do with the crossing. The situation has been the same for years and as far as I can see will remain the same for the next 10 or 15 years. Moreover, I am not convinced that the road is as near bankruptcy or insolvency as it would like people to believe. The only reason this matter has been hanging fire so long in Lowell is that we have been too passive. There is an old adage that the squealing pig gets the most swill and I think it is about time for us to make a noise. If we don't and the time comes when the road says it is able to finance a few such propositions, while we have a great need, the work will be done somewhere else and in a city which has made more of a 'holter' than we have."

Lawrence Cummings harked back to the year 1888, when, he said, he attended a hearing on the question of the abolition of the Middlesex street grade crossing and asked what the city might now expect after 32 years of stagnation.

Road's Share of Expense

In reply to a question put by one of the commissioners, Mr. Alexander admitted that the Boston & Maine would only be required to shoulder 65 per cent. of the total cost of a new crossing, with the city assuming 10 per cent., and the other 25 per cent. to be assessed to the state.

The plans brought by Engineer Dow were in substance the same as those drawn by City Engineer Kearney and fully explained in this paper yesterday. They call for four main line tracks instead of two and eliminate the Western avenue crossing as well as the one in question. They vary from the Kearney plans somewhat in regard to the amount of grade, but show a grade extension north and south from Middlesex street of approximately the same distance. The railroad plans call for the moving of the curve in the track at the depot a few feet westerly to care for four tracks.

Engineer Dow gladly offered a set of these plans to the committee and they were accepted.

ADDRESSED DOWN

TOWN MEN'S CLUB

Joe Mitchell Chaplin filled his second speaking engagement in Lowell last evening when he addressed the Down Town Men's club of the First Congregational church, in substance, the journalist repeated his talk given before the Rotary club at noon and those privileged to hear it twice enjoyed the second telling even more.

TODAY'S GAME POSTPONED

Rain caused the postponement of the scheduled Lowell High-Arlington high baseball game this afternoon at Spalding park. If arrangements can be made the teams will get together later in the season, for there is considerable interest in their meeting inasmuch as Carl D. Burk, formerly of this city, is headmaster of the Arlington school. The next home game for the local schoolboys will be on Saturday, when Manchester, N. H., high comes to this city.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

HILL BLACKBIRD TELLS A FIB

Bill Blackbird's plan was this: He thought that if his name came so far down on the bird list that he wasn't going to get out of Scrub-Up Land until Decoration Day maybe, why he'd pretend he was somebody else and stand a better chance to get away early to the Land-Where-Spring-Was-Coming.

So he peeped over Nick's shoulder at the big bird book with its lovely pictures, which the twins and Rubadub were copying onto the real birds. Right on the page before him was a beautiful bird all orange and black; whom he recognized at once. "So that's the person who is to get his freedom next!" cried Bill. "I'll just pretend I'm he, and then I'll get painted up at once. Me for the Land-Where-Spring-Was-Coming, and the nice, juicy bugs!"

Well, pretty soon, Nick finished coloring Sid Song-Sparrow's gray shirt, which he fastened on with little brown studs, and handed him his brown cap.

As Sid flew away whistling happily into the sunshine, Nick called, "Next, just like they do in your Daddy's barber shop, when it's somebody's turn to get his hair cut. That was Bill's chance! He stepped right up out of line, like you've seen cheeky people do at a ticket window, when they haven't any right to at all, and said: 'That's me, I guess.' He was too much excited to bother with grammar!"

Nick took a good look at Bill, then at the picture in the Bird Book. "What's your name?" he asked. "I'm an oriole," fibbed Bill. "My name's Oliver."

Nick looked at the orange and black picture again. "I guess that's right," he said doubtfully, "but you don't look like it. You must have got awfully dirty down south. Mr. Oriole. Nancy, where's the orange paint?"

After Bill Blackbird said he was an oriole, Nick and Nancy got the yellow paint and made him look exactly like the picture of the oriole in the bird book. They put on a gorgeous orange waistcoat, and painted wonderful patches of color on the rest of his clothes. Bill was the most gorgeous thing you ever looked at, and when he caught a glimpse of himself in the mirror he swelled up 'til he nearly burst.

"Fine feathers certainly do make fine birds, don't they?" he remarked, smoothing his vest.

Now if Bill had only kept quiet he would probably have been out of Scrub-Up Land in about five more seconds, following Robin Redbreast and Helinda Blackbird to the Land-Where-Spring-Was-Coming.

But it's pretty hard to make a voice like Bill's sound like anything else but—just Bill's. There isn't another one anywhere quite like it.

"What's that?" asked the Magical Mushroom curiously, coming in just then for some soap for Rubadub the fairymen, to wash the dirt off the mole's nose.

Bill repeated his remark.

"Who is this gentleman, Nick?" asked the Mushroom coming closer.

"Oliver Oriole!" explained Nick. "He comes next, you know, for his picture is next in the bird book."

"Looks a little large for Oliver, doesn't he?" remarked the Mushroom, looking Bill over from head to foot. Bill shifted uneasily.

"But perhaps he's grown since I saw him last," went on the fairy. "You never can tell what a change of climate will do for a person, or perhaps the beetles down south are finer than ours."

"Yes, yes, they are!" said Bill eagerly, anxious to be gone. "They're very fine! Big as houses! Ahem! I mean they're quite large!"

The Mushroom was quite close to Bill now, listening carefully to everything he said, and slowly a queer little smile spread over his face.

The Attorney-General's Opinion

Following is the text of the opinion received at city hall today by Mr. Flynn from the office of the secretary of the commonwealth:

Hon. Albert P. Langtry, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Dear Sir:—You have asked my opinion as to whether in the matter of elections in the city of Lowell you are to recognize the city clerk or the election commissioners. The pertinent facts are these: By statute 1920, Chapter 154, an election commission in the city of Lowell was established. Section 1 creates the commission and further states:

"The duties incumbent upon the city clerk in his capacity as a member of the registrars of voters are hereby transferred to the commission."

"The commission shall have general supervision of all elections; the appointment, supervision and compensation of precinct officers; the location of polling booths; and may employ such persons as they may deem necessary in the performance of their duties."

"The commission may order sessions for the registering of voters in the several voting precincts by streets or by alphabetical lists as described in Chapter 535, of the acts of 1912."

Section 5 is as follows: "So much of Chapter 645 of the Acts of 1911 as is inconsistent herewith is hereby repealed."

Prior to the passage of Statute 1920, Chapter 154, elections in Lowell were governed by the provisions of Statutes 1912, Chapter 535, and by the city charter (St. 1911, c. 115). These statutes imposed certain duties on the mayor and aldermen, city clerk and board of registrars, and by section 8 of the 1913 act these powers in the city of Lowell were vested in the board of election commissioners.

St. 1911, Chapter 615, in regard to elections, provides as follows: "The laws of the commonwealth relating to annual city elections, special elections of city officers, special elections in cities, election officers, voting places for elections, election apparatus and blanks, calling and conduct of elections, manner of voting at elections, counting and re-counting of votes at elections, corrupt practices and penalties shall apply to all elections under this act, including preliminary elections, except as is otherwise provided hereof."

There is a certain ambiguity in the 1920 act as regards the provisions of sections 1 and 5. Section 1 gives the commission general supervision of all elections and Section 5 provides that all duties incumbent on the city clerk in his capacity as a member of the registrars of voters are hereby transferred to the commission. The question is whether the city clerk retains any duties as city clerk in regard to the elections in the city of Lowell. In my opinion he does not retain any duties of which he is placed in the hands of the election commission.

Section 5 of the 1920 act repeals so much of St. 1911, c. 645, as is inconsistent therewith, and it is clear that certain of the provisions of St. 1912, c. 535, to elections in the city of Lowell, are repealed. Such duties as the city clerk had in regard to elections prior to the passage of the 1920 act were derived from the provisions of Section 29, of the 1911 act. As the provisions under which these duties were derived are now expressly repealed, it follows that Section 4 of the 1920 act, giving the commission general supervision of elections, gives to them such powers of supervision as the city clerk formerly had under the provision of law which has been repealed. It is clear that it was the intention of the legislature to give to the election commission of the city of Lowell powers similar to those enjoyed by the election commissioners in the city of Boston, and as there is no specific provision withholding from them any of the powers and duties formerly enjoyed by other city officials, the act should be construed to give them all of those powers.

Very truly yours,
J. WESTON ALLEN,
By LEONARD POWERS,
Attorney General.

HOOVER CLUB IN NORTH BILLERICA

A Hoover club has been formed in North Billerica this week, with Thos. Q. Nickerson as president and Richard T. Perry, secretary. A meeting of citizens interested in Mr. Hoover's candidacy for president was held on Monday evening, with Alonzo G. Walsh and Robert F. Mardon of Lowell; Col. Robert A. Goodwin of the 10th Field Artillery and Charles H. Williams of North Billerica as speakers. About 25 men joined the club and tentative plans were adopted for a membership campaign.

SUFFERING OF
YOUNG WOMENThis Letter Tells How it May be Overcome—all Mothers Interested.

Fort Dodge, Ia.—"From the time my daughter was 13 years old until she was 16 she suffered so badly each month, that sometimes I had to call in the doctor. She had headaches, backache, and such pains and cramps that she would have to stay in bed two or three days. She became terribly run down in health and at last a friend who had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound told her about it and she has used sixteen bottles, and we always have it in the house. She feels fine now and she has no trouble at all each month. We always praise it and advise any friends who suffer to use your wonderful medicine."—Mrs. MEXIE MANDERLO, 1005 S. 18th St. &amp; 10th Avenue, Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Girls who are troubled as Miss Manderlo was, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

It is the wonderful combination of roots and herbs, together with the skill and care used in its preparation which has made this famous medicine so successful in the treatment of female ills.

BLOCKADE OF FUME IS MOST SEVERE

TRIEST, April 27—(By Associated Press)—The blockade which Fiume is now undergoing is admittedly the most severe to which it has been subjected. The communications of the town have been completely cut off, regular Italian troops tearing up sections of the railway and bringing up numbers of machine guns to guard the frontiers. Passage in and out of the city is forbidden, not even milk going in and connection with the outside world by the sea route has been completely severed.

Gabrielle d'Annunzio, the insurgent commander, is threatening counter action. "My army, navy and air forces are ready to occupy the coast of the Bay of Quarnero (on which Fiume lies) including Abbazia and Volosera. If the Italian army continues its acts of reprisal against me," said the poet to the correspondent, "in a talk with him in Fiume on Monday. They have cut off the food supply for the women and children of the city, but they will find out that this brutal act will not daunt the spirit of my triumphant soldiers and sailors."

AMERICAN LEGION MEETING TONIGHT

Every member of the American Legion is urged to attend the meeting which is to be held in the Community club in Dutton street this evening at 8 o'clock. Matters of special importance and details which need the presence of all comrades of the post will be taken up. There are also athletic propositions under consideration, including the formation of a baseball team. Another point to be touched upon is the bonus question.

The membership drive which will be staged in this city from May 1 to 30 will also be discussed tonight and plans will be laid to recruit the strength of the local post to equal that of any other in the state.

THE ONE-MAN CARS

It will not be long before the one-man cars will be regularly established in the schedules of the street railway company, possibly within two or three weeks. Mr. Thomas Lees is supervising the rearrangement of the schedule at present and just as soon as the men to run the new cars are decided upon they will be put in operation. The routes which will most likely be first served by the one-man cars are the Christian-Hill Varnum are, and the Oaklands and Pawtucketville. As Lowell has not received her full assignment of cars it is likely that their use here on many of the lines will be gradual. Many others have been tested out here and have been sent over the road to other divisions of the railway, including Haverhill and Salem.

Says Fat People Now Rejoice

Testimony Proves Arbolone Safe, Sure Reducer

Enjoys Wide Sale Amongst Educated Wealthy Set.

The physician who originated the Anti-fat treatment known to physicians and druggists as "five-grain tablets Arbolone" is being praised and thanked by scores of women in the class known as "society devotees."

A literary woman in Los Angeles, being so highly elated over her success in reducing, has written a clever little poem, which recites the facts and expresses deep gratitude as well. To safely and surely reduce from 20 to 40 pounds is easily accomplished when tablets Arbolone are used regularly. They are not drastic or dangerous, used as directed, but simply and surely dissolve the fatty elements and eliminate from the system. Also, they remove the craving for such foods as are not desirable for fat folks to use. Herein, Arbolone is superior to all other anti-fat medicines, as it automatically overcomes the abnormal, perverted appetite for starchy foods, etc. Sold by all druggists in sealed tubes with full directions.

WATER GLASS

(Sodium Silicate)

FOR PRESERVING EGGS

By using this heavy syrupy liquid it is possible to preserve eggs for months. The water glass has no chemical action on the eggs but keeps out the air.

Use one gallon of water glass to nine gallons of water. One quart of water glass will make enough liquid for a five-gallon crock full of eggs. Place the eggs in the crock and pour the solution over them until they are covered. The eggs should be absolutely fresh, not three or four days old. They should be put down the day they are laid and kept in a cool place.

Water glass has nothing harmful in it. When taken out of the solution, use clear water to wash the eggs.

LABOR UNION MEETINGS

At a regular meeting of the Woolen Weavers' union, which was held last evening in Labor hall, Central street, it was voted to hold the charter open for the next two weeks. Ten new members were initiated, several applications for membership were received and routine business was transacted.

Slasher Tenders' Union

The regular meeting of the Slasher Tenders' union was held in Labor hall last evening with President Dana R. Hart in the chair. Two new members were initiated, the organization voted to participate in the Labor day parade next September and routine business was transacted. Other meetings were held last evening by Local 2025, Carpenters' union and by the Folders' union.

"I have been"

Using Your Sulphur Tablets More or Less for Many Years and Have Recommended Them to Many, Because I Think They Should Be in Every Home.

Thus writes Mr. Wm. Cameron, 1021 Eals Place, Denver, Colo., and we publish this brief statement to prove the never-ending value of Sulphur Tablets, in the treatment of such ailments as chronic constipation, impaired kidney action, and consequent impure blood manifested in many ways, such as headaches, pimples, boils, rash, hives, rheumatism, etc. Neglected constipation undoubtedly brings on a long train of more serious ills and the way to get relief is to use Sulphur Tablets as a laxative tonic blood clearer.

They are made of extracts of herbs and roots and contain sulphur and cream of tartar, thus supplying the essentials for a regular and effective treatment. Sold by druggists everywhere at 6c per tube. Adv.

DISCUSS REVISION OF GOLF RULES

CHICAGO, April 28.—Wilbur H. Brooks of Cleveland, president of the Western Golf Association and James F. Nugent of Kansas City, president of the Trans-Mississippi Golf Association, will attend a conference in New York on Friday, between representatives of various associations and the special United States Golf Association committee selected to go abroad to discuss revision of the rules of golf with a committee of the Royal and Ancient Golf club of St. Andrews, Scotland.

A number of state associations in the west which were asked to send representatives have requested Mr. Brooks to act for them. The western men, according to Crafts W. Higgin, assistant secretary of the Western Golf Association, will ask that the stymie be abolished and that the penalty for a lost ball be made the same as for a ball out of bounds. They also will urge that the rules be rewritten in a simpler manner.

The special committee to go abroad does not have among its members representatives of the great sectional associations, the Western, the Trans-Mississippi and the Southern.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

By Theatres' Own Press Agents

THE STRAND

The Strand programs including double feature attractions, as well as the usual high grade comedy and weekly, to say nothing of the musical features, continue in vogue and are becoming more popular with movie patrons daily. Madge Kennedy in "The Rooming Angel," and Harry Carey in "Overland Red," are the features to be shown for the last time today. Tomorrow, Tom Mix in "The Jaredevil" and Shirley Mason in "Jolly and I" will be shown. These are all specials, not regular pictures. Bear that in mind at all times.

OPERA HOUSE

If you've got the blues and want to get rid of them, then we recommend a visit to the Opera House during the week to witness a presentation of one of Mark Swann's funniest farces comedies, "She Walked in Heeled Shoes," by the popular Lowell Players. It's by far the most entertaining, humor-making stage vehicle that the present stock season has given to local players, and should serve the wants of the patrons in full measure. See and laugh your fill at the antics of the girl who walks in her sleep and the complications that arise as a result of her somnambulistic wanderings. Capacity audience at every performance. Get your tickets early.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

"The Croole Fashion Plate," appearing at the B. F. Keith theatre this week, has a wealth of wonderful scenery. It is advanced in every particular and will make a wonderful appeal to the women who see the act. But it is not alone as an exploiter of beautiful gowns that the "Plate" excels. As a matter there is singing of an unusual order. J. K. Emmet, Mary Ryan and Co., in "Heartland," bring out the beauties of a dainty little musical romance. As Success and Romance Mr. Emmet and Miss Ryan are delightful. Real jaxers are Keegan and Edwards, who are also among the feature performers of the bill. Frank Gaby proves more than acceptable as a ventriloquist. Among the other acts are: Gray and Old Rosebush; Joseph M. Norcross, the oldest living minstrel bawls and Billy Fern & Co. in a comedy.

THE OWL THEATRE

Today's performances are the last for the present bill of vaudeville and pictures at the Owl theatre. All three acts have exceptional merit. It being the purpose of the management to give the theatregoers of Lowell a popular priced vaudeville and picture theatre. However, the picture program includes Eugene Hayakawa in his latest feature, "The Brand of Lopez," and Lillian Walker better known as "Dimples" in the "Million Dollar Reward." Coming Thursday is "Orf-Orf's" masterpiece, "The Greatest Question," together with one of the biggest comedy hits of the season, "Twilight Baby" in four reels and a feature bill of vaudeville conspicuous among which are "Randolph & Holcomb" the two classy girls that made such hits two Sundays ago. The performances are continuous daily, starting at 1 p. m. vaudeville appearing at 3, 6 and 8 p. m. three complete shows being given. Night patrons arriving at 7.45 see entire big bill.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Final performances of "The False Road," the dramatic story of New York life and its underworld, starring Reid and his underworld, starting at 1 p. m. vaudeville appearing at 3, 6 and 8 p. m. three complete shows being given. Night patrons arriving at 7.45 see entire big bill.

ROTARY DRAMATIC CLUB

Entertains Under the Auspices of League of Catholic Women

"Apartment to Let," the celebrated comedy of English life, was presented by the Rotary Dramatic Club before an appreciative audience that filled the Colonial theatre in Middlesex street to capacity last evening. Given under the auspices of the League of Catholic Women and for the benefit of the Catholic women's diocesan centre which it is planned to erect in Boston, the affair attracted residents of all sections of the city and most assuredly the diocesan centre fund was materially increased.

The cast presenting the play was practically the same as that which appeared in the comedy a few months ago when given under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. If anything, the various characters seemed even more at home in their parts than at the time of the previous performances and every line was given without hesitation and with an appreciation of its comedy qualities most pleasing to the audience. The plot in itself furnishes several hours of almost continuous laughter and as carried out by the players last evening it provided an evening of excellent entertainment. Each member of the cast bore his or her part admirably and contributed a measure to the complete success of the performance. The cast was as follows:

Alfred Hastings.....Dr. Joseph Jantzen
Tom McDev.....William Moss
Theodore Bender.....John McNabb
Josephine Bender.....Edith Lyons
Evangeline Bender.....Mary Carmody
Mr. Herbert Pettibone.....Thomas Carlie
Rosalie Pettibone.....Mrs. John McNabb
Emily Pettibone.....Berta (Sandra)
Christopher Dabney.....James Dancy
Judson Langhorne.....Charles Keyes
Phil Ortlanski.....Mary Craven
Augustus McNabb.....Sam O'Neill
Victor Smythe.....Charles Smith
Thompson.....John Green
Belle.....M. Finnegan

To William E. O'Connell, who directed the comedy and Thomas Beane, the stage director, much credit is also due for their part in the success of the performance.

The league orchestra under the direction of Miss Marie J. C. O'Donnell furnished musical numbers during the evening and as usual, was thoroughly enjoyed.

The committee in charge of the affair included Mrs. Andrew J. Halpin and Mrs. Theo J. Bernhardt.

The ushers were as follows: Misses Doris Handley, Louise Mahoney, Rose McQuade, Rose Q. Leary, Dorothy McAdams, Anna L. Maguire, Myrtle Rooney, Rose Geary, Georgianna Keith, Lillian Burns, Mae Burns, and Grace Donohue.

REFUSED TO WELCOME PRINCE OF WALES

LONDON, April 26.—Maori tribesmen, formerly enemies of the British in the Maori war, refused to be represented at Rotorua in welcoming the Prince of Wales, upon his arrival there.

A Central News despatch from Auckland. They pointed out their presence would associate them with other tribes, against which they made a protest.

Chiefs of the Maori threatened if the prince did not stop at their village to receive them, they would hold up his train by lying down in front of it. They finally promised not to create a disturbance if permitted to welcome the royal visitor.

BOSTON, April 28.—The "regular" slates of republican and democratic candidates for delegates-at-large to the national conventions were elected by substantial majorities in yesterday's presidential primary, according to the complete vote today.

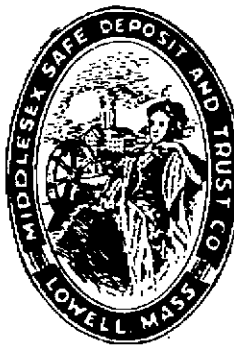

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, led the republican "big four" who headed the ballot as a group. He was followed in the order named by Speaker Frederick H. Gillet of the national house of representatives, former Senator W. Murray Crane and Edward A. Thurston.

HUSBAND OF ACCUSED WOMAN TESTIFIES

CONCORD, N. H., April 28.—Howard Otterson, husband of Mrs. Marion Loyne Otterson, was called this morning as a witness for the state in the woman's trial for the murder of her brother-in-law, Maurice Otterson. He was shown by Attorney General Oscar L. Young, the revolver found in an upper room of the Otterson home in Hooksett, where the crime was committed, and with which the state claims Maurice Otterson was killed. The witness agreed with the contention of the prosecution that the weapon had been cleaned, so far as the barrel was concerned, but said in his judgment the cartridge chamber had not been cleaned. Joseph A. St. Germain of Hooksett testified that he passed the Otterson home on the night of the murder, just before 5 o'clock and there was no sign of disturbance. He passed again about 20 minutes later and learned of the murder. He summoned Selectman Earl Otterson to the scene. George W. Lord, a photographer of Boston, gave testimony regarding pictures that he had taken of the dead man.

Serious Upheaval in Siberia Many Japanese Massacred

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Japanese guards in the district of Nikolaevsk, eastern Siberia, are believed to have been annihilated and several hundred Japanese residents, including the Japanese consul there, massacred, according to an official statement issued by the Japanese foreign office and made public today by the state department. The Japanese statement said the suspension of communication with the district rendered it impossible to get at the real state of affairs, but that it was evident that "a serious upheaval" had taken place. Efforts of the Japanese to dispatch a military relief expedition into the district have failed because of the ice. Meantime, however, the Japanese have sent an expedition to Alexandrovsk, accompanied by the warships Mikasa and Mishima. The forces reached their destination April 22, and found the Japanese residents in that district safe. Most of them were taken aboard the Mikasa.

NO FURTHER CONFUSION AT COST PLUS EXPENSE

City Clerk is Relieved of all Duties Connected With Elections

The city clerk of the city of Lowell does not retain any duties in connection with elections, as a result of the creation of a bi-partisan election commission, it has been ruled by J. Weston Allen, attorney-general of the commonwealth. The election commission has full control of all matters pertaining to elections in this city, the attorney-general says.

A copy of Mr. Allen's opinion to this effect reached Lowell today and clears up considerable confusion that has surrounded the powers and duties of the new commission since its creation a month ago. Stephen Flynn, city clerk, desiring to have some formal ruling on the matter by the state's legal authorities, had requested an opinion on the matter through the office of the secretary of the commonwealth. Today Mr. Flynn received a copy of the opinion given the secretary by the attorney-general. Mr. Allen says that it is clear that it was the intention of the legislature to give to the election commission of Lowell powers similar and inasmuch as there is no specific provision withholding from the local commission any of the powers and duties formerly enjoyed by other city officials, the act should be construed to place the entire control of elections in the hands of the election commission.

The attorney-general's opinion clears up a matter that has been hanging fire for some time. City Clerk Flynn has continued to perform those duties not specifically outlined in the act to be performed by the election commission, but the opinion received today

10,000 Over Wood

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 28.—Additional returns from yesterday's presidential preference primary election in Ohio today, gave Senator Warren G. Harding a lead of almost 10,000 votes over Maj. General Leonard Wood. The vote from 1677 out of a total of 8882 precincts in the state gave Harding 103,762 and Wood 93,762.

Although their names were not printed on the ballots, Hiram Johnson of California received 12,765 votes, and Herbert Hoover of California received 4253 votes in 3149 scattering precincts.

The name of Gov. James M. Cox of Ohio was the only one appearing on the democratic presidential ballot. In several districts over the state, however, the name of William G. McAdoo was written in. All democratic candidates for delegate to the national convention were pledged to Cox.

FRENCH SOON TO QUIT FRANKFORT

Premier Millerand Says
French Forces Soon to Withdraw From Ruhr Zone

Returns to Paris Well Pleased
With Results of San Remo
Conference

PARIS, April 28.—Premier Millerand on his return from the sessions of the supreme council of the allies at San Remo told the chamber of deputies today that the conference just ended would not prove to have been a failure. He laid especial emphasis on the particularly cordial reception accorded to the French representatives by Italy, declaring that the entente between the two Latin races was closer than ever. Any idea that the treaty of Versailles would be revised, must be given up, the only point to be discussed being the application of its terms, M. Millerand asserted.

The premier took the chamber by surprise, as it was not expected that he would make his declaration with regard to the supreme council's work before tomorrow. Few deputies were present and the spectators' galleries were almost empty.

The premier read the joint declaration made public by the allies regarding execution of the peace treaty, adding that the idea of asking German representatives to meet the chiefs of the allied governments at Spa was a happy one, but conditional upon limitation of the domain of these conversations. "All thought of revision of the treaty must be excluded," Mr. Millerand said. "It is not revision, but application, of the treaty which shall be discussed."

The deputies listened to the premier's declaration in absolute silence excepting when he referred to the mandates awarded Great Britain for Palestine and Mesopotamia. A deputy of the extreme right shouted: "Have we Mosul?"

M. Millerand ignored the interruption and continued his declaration, which was not prepared in advance.

He said that the Frankfurt and the Darmstadt territories would be evacuated by the French as soon as the allied commission had established that the German armed force over the number allowed by the convention of August, 1918, had been withdrawn.

Boston & Maine Officials Hold Out Little Hope For Abolition of Middlesex Street Crossing

Absolutely no hope for the abolition of the Middlesex street grade crossing at the present time was held out by officials of the Boston & Maine railroad this forenoon at a conference held under the auspices of a special committee of the Lowell chamber of commerce. Moreover, it was stated by these officials that elimination of grade crossings "is not being done" these days and whatever action the railroad takes in the future will be governed almost solely by its financial status.

The road was pictured on the brink of insolvency in spite of the fact that it is temporarily free from receivership, but this did not materially affect the intent of the committee, which heard all the officials had to say then instructed the chairman to appoint a sub-committee of three to carry on the agitation.

The officials were told by Chairman Josiah Butler that in spite of the fact that the outlook as pictured was decidedly gloomy, the committee has a definite work to do and would proceed to carry the matter to the very limit, believing that the crossing has been a source of danger and public inconvenience for all too long a time.

Present at the conference representing the B. & M. were Thornton Alexander, solicitor of the road, and P. F. Dow, engineer of construction. A. S. Corbitt, chief engineer, who had been invited to attend, was unable to make the trip.

Head's Financial History
Mr. Alexander did most of the talking and delved deep into the financial history and present-day standing of the road. Not only did he say that the elimination of grade crossings is considered "unprofessional" by the railroad today, but that to consider any proposition which would call for the expenditure of two and a half million dollars would be little short of criminal, in view of the present condition of the road financially.

Although the road has plans for the WARSAW, April 28.—(By the Associated Press).—A general advance by Polish forces along a 180-mile front into the Ukraine, was announced in today's communique by the Polish general staff. The movement, it is set forth, is for the expulsion of the "foreign invaders" (Russian Bolsheviks).

The Poles covered about 50 miles on the first day of their forward movement, their advance line taking them within 60 miles of Kiev.

The advance was explained in a proclamation issued in the name of Gen. Pilsudski, the head of the Polish state, and posted in the cities and villages through which the Polish forces marched. The document announced

Paper Shortage is World-Wide

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Doubt that the government will be able to accomplish a great deal in relieving the print paper shortage, was expressed today by Frank P. Glass of Birmingham, Ala., former president of the American Newspaper Publishers' association. Mr. Glass was one of the first witnesses before the senate commerce sub-committee which is investigating the print paper question. He explained that the shortage of news print was world-wide. Questioned as to the advisability of congress attempting to reduce consumption by limiting the size of publications admitted to the mail, Mr. Glass said he doubted the "justice and feasibility of such an undertaking." While conceding that the cost of labor and all materials going into the making of paper has increased, Mr. Glass declared that he thought present prices excessive and that the manufacturers were "making high profits."

SAYS GIRL ASKED HIM TO KILL HER

Best Confesses to Murder of 18-Year-Old Telephone
Operator

Declares Victim Gave Him
Handkerchiefs to Tie
Around Her Neck

PONTIAC, Mich., April 28.—Anson Best, formerly of Flint, Mich., confessed today, according to Prosecutor Glenn C. Gillespie, that he killed Miss Vera Schneider, 18-year-old telephone operator, whose body was found early Sunday morning on the porch of an unoccupied dwelling.

Best, according to the prosecutor, confessed after being identified by a workman as having been seen washing his hands in the Clinton river, near the scene of the crime a few minutes after his discovery.

"She asked me to kill her," Best was quoted as saying. He declared, according to the prosecutor that he met Miss Schneider for the first time late Saturday night. She drew handkerchiefs from his pockets and asked him to tie them together and place them about her neck. Best was quoted as saying:

Continuing, the statement quotes Best as saying he left the body and walked to the river nearby where he washed his hands. He returned to the place where the body already had been found by officers and when stopped by a policeman, took a searchlight, went to the porch and looked at the girl's face.

Best was released at that time, but was rearrested Monday night after a workman had told of seeing a man coming up from the river shortly after the body was discovered.

JUDGE NOT TO BLAME

If Peter Had Behaved Himself Everything Would Have Been All Right

"I got married through you, Judge, and now I'm getting separated through you," remarked Peter Grenier pensively in police court today after Judge Wright had found him guilty of assault and battery on his wife, imposed a $10 fine and ordered him to remain away from the family hearth—for the present at least.

"Just what do you mean by that statement?" queried the court. "I can't recall having had any connection with your marriage."

"Oh, yes, it was through you that I got married," insisted Peter. "Don't you remember that she had me pinched for drunkenness three years ago, and you made us get married?"

"Yes," remarked the court reflectively, "I do recall it now. But you were not arraigned for drunkenness—you were called on a statutory charge for living with this woman unlawfully."

"Furthermore, it was on your request that I allowed you to get married—I fully intended sending you to jail."

"Yes, that's right, Your Honor," came back Peter. "I s'pose that was

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Have You Rheumatism, Kidney, Liver or Bladder Trouble?

Pain or dull ache in the back is often evidence of kidney trouble. It is Nature's timely warning to show you that the track of health is not clear.

Danger Warning
If these danger signals are unheeded more serious results are sure to follow: kidney trouble in its worst form may steal upon you.

Thousands of people have testified that the mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine is soon realized that it stands the highest for its remarkable curative effect in the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine, you should have the best.

Lame Back
Lame back is only one of many symptoms of kidney trouble. Other symptoms showing that you may need Swamp-Root are, being subject to embarrassing and frequent bladder troubles.

SPECIAL NOTE—You may obtain a sample size bottle of Swamp-Root by enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. This gives you the opportunity to prove the remarkable merit of this medicine. They will also send you a book of valuable information, containing many of the thousands of grateful letters received from men and women who say they found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed in kidney, liver and bladder troubles. The value and success of Swamp-Root are so well known that our readers are advised to send for a sample size bottle. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Be sure to say you read this offer in The Lowell Sun.—Adv.

really the way it happened. And now I've got to leave her—what?"

"That seems to be the best thing to do under the circumstances," replied the court. "She says that she's afraid to live with you any longer after being assaulted."

"Well, then I s'pose I'll have to be so," concluded Peter and with that he left the court room.

Peter's conviction on an assault charge resulted from his wife's story to the effect that yesterday he had beaten her because she was holding a conversation with a woman acquaintance who was not numbered among Peter's friends.

Peter said that wasn't the reason at all. The whole trouble had been caused by the fact that his step-daughter insisted upon going to the movies 'most every night and returning home in the wee small hours.

Other Cases

Convicted on charges of drunkenness and also frightening and annoying several little girls, James McLaughlin of this city was sentenced to three months in the house of correction. McLaughlin said he couldn't remember anything at all about it.

Charged with the unlawful use of registered milk bottles, Thomas H. Sherlock pleaded not guilty and was granted a continuance for one week. Sherlock was arraigned on five separate counts.

Joseph Delandis of Billerica, an ex-service man, was convicted of assault and battery on Michael Smigelsky also of Billerica, and his case continued until tomorrow for sentence. The assault resulted from an argument over the pasturing of some cows, according to testimony.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are among the most common diseases that prevail, they are sometimes the last recognized by patients, who very often content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease may constantly undermine the system.

Of the individual candidates, Senator Lodge led the ticket in all but five cities. Crane led in North Adams and Pittsfield, his home county. Speaker Gillett led in his home city of Springfield and the nearby cities of Northampton and Chicopee.

Former Governor Samuel W. McCall who declared himself in favor of the nomination of Herbert Hoover, made his best showing in Revere, where he finished third. In many suburban cities he finished fifth, only a few votes behind fourth place.

Congressman Alvan T. Fuller, who publicly pledged himself to vote for Wood, finished among the first four in eight cities. He made his best showing in the ninth congressional district, which he represents.

The delegates pledged to Wood were elected in the sixth district, the home of Congressman Lufkin, manager of the Wood campaign in this state. The low Wood delegate in this district had a lead of 141 over the higher unpledged candidate.

In Bourne, the Little Cape Cod town where General Wood has a legal residence, Lodge polled the largest republican vote with Frothingham, who was favorable to Wood, second; Crane third, and Fuller fourth.

No other republican aspirants for the presidential nomination made a campaign in Massachusetts. During the campaign Senator Hiram Johnson's headquarters repudiated endorsements of certain candidates by Johnson local organizations.

Chairman O'Leary Routes

The democratic contests for district delegates were largely factional. Michael A. O'Leary, chairman of the democratic state committee, was defeated in the eighth district, running a poor third in a field of five. In the first district, District Attorney Joseph B. Ely, who sought to overturn the "regular" democratic slate, ran fourth in a field of seven.

An exceptionally light vote was cast throughout the state. Senator Lodge, leading the republicans, polled 75,428 votes against 131,774 votes for Gov. Coolidge at the last gubernatorial contest. Senator Walsh, who headed the democrats yesterday received 22,313 votes against 192,673 democratic votes in the race for governor.

EXHIBITION DRILL
AND DANCE TONIGHT

The O.M.I. Cadets will hold their 15th annual exhibition drill and dance tonight in Associate hall. The first hour or so of the evening will be devoted to individual and officers prize drills and then, after the battalion demonstration, dancing will follow until midnight. During the exhibition of military interesting contests are expected for the prizes and a pleasing novelty is looked for in the stretcher demonstration which is under the direction of Instructor O'Neil. That event will be given just as the instructor himself, learned it while in Camp Devens.

of the lightest primary days in years. The lack of contest in the democratic ranks and overwhelming sentiment for winning candidates on the republican side contributed largely to the general apathy.

For delegates-at-large Lowell democrats named David I. Walsh, Richard H. Long, Joseph C. Pelletier and Daniel F. Doherty. A fifth candidate, former Congressman O'Connell, ran far behind. Alternate delegates-at-large chosen by local democrats were Susan W. Fitzgerald, Mary A. Carson, Mary Keegan Shuman and Helen G. Thayer. They were unopposed. Alternate district delegates chosen were Katherine F. McCarthy of this city and Anna L. McCowan of Woburn. Again there was no opposition. The Lowell democratic nominees were successful throughout the district.

James Heslin, whose name was written in on the democratic ballot by voters of wards 1 and 2, received a total of nine votes for district delegates.

On the republican side the "Big Four" among the candidates for delegates-at-large were successful—Senator Lodge Speaker Gillet, former Senator Crane and Edward Thurston, Frothingham, Fuller, Lawson, McCall and Wood ran in the order named.

Alternate republican delegates-at-large had no contest and the four successful men included Butler Ames, of this city. The other three were Chandler Bullock, Gordon W. Gordon and Butler R. Wilson. Alternate district delegates chosen by fifth district voters were Kimball G. Colby and Wilfred D. Gray. Louis Ellenwood ran third.

The democratic delegates both from the state and this district are unpledged. The republican delegates-at-

Try the Bitro-Phosphate Health System—$3.00 Guarantee.

NEW YORK—If you are feeling run-down, weak, nervous, tired in the morning, and generally ailing, these are the symptoms that should warn you to take care of your health.

Four persons in every ten are needing more phosphorus in their bodies. When you see thin and fretful people, or those who are anemic, pale, frazzled, despondent or lacking in energy, you may look for the need of certain elements that make for a strong constitution.

Some people, after relying upon preparations composed chiefly of salts, quinine, drastic drugs, iron, cod-liver oil, etc., wonder why they find no benefit. That is easily explained by the fact that such persons need the phosphoric element, which is a most potent essential to health, and contained in BITRO-PHOSPHATE, the famous health preparation. Now obtainable everywhere.

The right thing for you to do is make a trial of BITRO-PHOSPHATE beginning at once. It is not a patent medicine, the formula is prescribed by many physicians for the ailments and weaknesses mentioned above.

With every box of BITRO-PHOSPHATE, are a few simple health rules and a $3.00 guarantee. Buy a box of BITRO-PHOSPHATE. It is sold and recommended by A. W. Dows and all good druggists everywhere—trial.

large are understood to favor Governor Coolidge as their first choice for the presidency. Messrs. Dunbar and Pearson, district delegates, favor General Wood.

First returns were received at city hall last night at 9:45 and the last precinct had been heard from at midnight. Yesterday's primary was the first conducted under the auspices of the new election commission and was carried through without a hitch. Tabulating was done, as usual, in the city clerk's office and City Clerk Flynn and Assistant City Clerk McCarthy were on hand to assist the commission.

The number of clerks employed to tabulate the returns has been reduced practically in halves by the new commission and there were only five on hand last evening. Usually there are 10 or 11. The general lack of interest in the outcome of the primaries was indicated by the almost total absence of spectators watching the tabulations.

Roumanian CREAM OF POTATO Soup

- 1 cupful Borden's Evaporated Milk
3 tablespoonfuls butter or butter substitute
3 medium sized onions, chopped
1 green pepper chopped, (optional)
1 medium sized potatoes, diced small

1 quart boiling water
1 tablespoonful parsley
1/2 teaspoonful salt
Few grains pepper

Melt the butter in a quart saucepan and gently cook the onion and green pepper in it until tender. Add the water and seasonings, together with the potatoes, and cook till the latter is tender, then add the water and evaporated milk; bring to boiling point and serve.

This is only one of dozens of good things that may be made with

LAKE STEAMER TO BE MOORED

DETROIT—Floating taverns may solve the hotel problem here. The lake steamer Noronic of the Northern Steamship Co.'s fleet, will be moored at the foot of Brush street and used as a hotel—"The Noronic Floating Inn"—from May 1 to June 10, when the vessel will resume its regular run to Duluth. In the fall, from Sept. 18 to Dec. 4, the Noronic will be back on duty as a hotel. She has 280 rooms. Special-priced meals and dinner dances will be advertised. If this experiment is a success, other lake boats will be put into commission as hostleries between seasons.

obtained marvelous results from their use, after having tried other remedies in vain. For five years I had been suffering from the usual annoying complaints which accompany the critical age, and I was getting weaker all the time. I had violent headaches, and such bad attacks of dizziness that I had to lay down; I took RED PILLS, and as I gradually got stronger my various ailments disappeared, and I took on weight. Now I enjoy the best of health.

SPRING AILMENTS

Believed By a Well-Known Medicine of Superlative Merit

Spring ailments are due to impure, impoverished, devitalized blood. Among them are pimples, boils and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, a run-down condition of the system, and sometimes chronic weaknesses made worse.

Hood's Sarsaparilla combines the roots, bark, herbs, berries and other medicinal plants that have been found, in many years of intelligent observation, to be most effective in treatment of these ailments.

Successful physicians prescribe these ingredients for diseases of the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, and in cases where alterative and tonic effects are needed.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the spring medicine that purifies, enriches and revitalizes your blood, increasing power of resistance to disease.

NEWEST BLOUSES IN BLACK ARE SHOWN

Some chic new blouses have been developed in black this season. Black lace and net are used for elaborate blouses of knee-length, worn with skirts of satin or silk. Many are made of black georgette or crepe de chine.

Black cotton blouses are also very smart. Black organdie waists are trimmed with collars of white organdie, while black dotted Swiss blouses have collars of white batiste or organdie.

MANY OF OUR WEDDING CUSTOMS ARE RELICS OF THE LONG AGO

Throwing old shoes after a bridal couple dates back to the Old Testament. When a man transferred a piece of property he took off his shoe and handed it to the purchaser to seal the bargain. In the marriage ceremony, it has come to mean that the parents give up all dominion over their daughter.

The throwing of rice is an old Hindu custom emblematic of life and fruitfulness. At present, it is a symbol of good wishes.

"Best Man" Custom

In ancient times when the young man was unable to arrange with the parents for the purchase of the girl, he would run off with her and hide. Many times he employed the help of a trusted friend. From these incidents comes the well-known custom of the wedding journey of hidden destination. The trusted friend of long ago is the best man of today who still helps with the arrangements of the marriage.

Significance of Rings

The wedding ring is a relic of barbarism. It signified the hand by which the woman was bound to her lord and master. From this time also dates the custom of leading the bride to the altar. When a woman married, she sacrificed herself, her liberty, and her life to the man. The ring now is symbolic of the transference of property and when it is placed upon the bride's finger, it indicates that the man endows her with his worldly goods.

Rich Wear Flowers

The wearing of orange blossoms originated with the Saracens and was brought to Europe by the Crusaders. It signified fruitfulness to the Orientals. When the western nations adopted the flower, it became significant of wealth and high station since the scarcity of these flowers placed them beyond the reach of poor people.

Peru will wage war on malaria by treating patients, protecting residents of malarial regions, destroying germ-bearing insects, and draining low lands.

EXPERTS TELL CITIES' THREE GREAT NEEDS

N.E.A. Staff Special
CINCINNATI, April 28.—Here is the last word in city-planning as formulated by the national conference on city planning. To make your city conform to the modern standards of municipal efficiency, official policy must recognize, according to civic experts, who have just met here in convention, the following necessities:

The zone system.
Rail and water terminal facilities.
Street traffic control.
Zoning was explained as the dividing of a community into residential, business and manufacturing districts. Even the size of dwellings and apartment houses are restricted for the good of the entire community.
"Zoning of cities will have great influence in the life of cities," says Pavel Shurtliff of Boston, secretary of the conference.
"On the Pacific Coast, I understand,

"DANDERINE"

Stops Hair Coming Out;
Doubles Its Beauty.

A few cents buys "Danderine." After an application of "Danderine" you can not find a fallen hair or any dandruff, besides every hair shows new life, vigor, brightness, more color and thickness.—Adv.

Industries are avoiding these cities which have no zoning ordinance."

Thus far New York city, St. Louis, Portland, Ore., and Los Angeles, have zoning laws.

For solution of the terminal problem, the following recommendations: Unified control and operation within city limits. Municipal control of intra-city lines not necessary if such unified control can be obtained.

Present wasteful duplication of terminals cannot be permitted to continue.

Shippers should be free from dependence on one road for cars.

All spurs should be common users. Tracks should be served by belt lines. There must be adequate freight yards. Railroad lines may be diverted around the city limits so that through trains will not have to enter heart of city.

Rail and water terminals should be treated as a single problem.

Elimination of grade crossings.
E. P. Goodrich, engineer, of New York, urges eventual segregation of traffic, that is, street cars overhead or in subways with street levels left for motor and other vehicular travel.

He suggested establishment of private rights of way by trucking interests where freight is handled by trucks; cutting off of building corners and setting in of curbs; enlargement of curb radius at corners; use of pairs of one-way streets; designation of streets to handle certain types of traffic; and elimination of parking on crowded streets.

R. H. LONG CONTRACTS

Hearing to be Given by Committee of Congress

To the Editor of the Sun—Congressman William J. Graham, chairman of the congressional committee on war expenditures, at our request, will give a hearing in Washington concerning our war contracts on May 4.

Nearly all Massachusetts papers published unfavorable reports last year about our war contracts, some papers stating that we made large profits. We asked for the hearing to bring out the truth concerning our war contracts, and at the hearing we shall undertake to show that we abandoned our regular business and took competitive contracts for nearly $10,000,000, and none of these contracts were cost-plus.

We made for the government military supplies that we had never made before and that had not before been made extensively by anyone in this state. We shall show that we saved the government millions of dollars; that our prices were lower than competitors; that we did all the contracts required and also expended many hundred thousands of dollars not required by the contracts.

There was a question between service to the government or profit to the contractor we gave service to the government.

We shall show that the results were largely because the workers, both men and women, in this state are very skillful in manufacturing, and in our factories they always did their part to help win the war.

Will you please give publicity to this letter, and to such of the testimony at the hearing as you think it wise to give public, having in mind the wide publicity given our contracts last year?

Very truly yours,
R. H. LONG COMPANY,
RICHARD H. LONG,
Framingham, Mass., April 24.

THE WAY TO GET A BIGGER JOB

BY ROGER W. BABSON

World-Famous Statistician

John Jones has a pretty good job, yet he is dissatisfied.

He spends a lot of time and energy fussing because he isn't some other job where he could "manage men."

He just knows he'd blossom out into a glorious success if he had another place, a larger opportunity.

We can understand him all right, because we've often felt that way ourselves.

Yet it all reminds me of the farmer who starved to death trying to raise wheat on what proved to be one of the richest diamond mines in the world.

John Jones clamors for a bigger job when he already has the biggest job in the world!

He would "manage men." Let him take John Jones in hand, lay out his time for him, train him, and keep him loaded in the right direction.

When he has done that, he will be given others to manage.

Let him undertake the "task" of making "John Jones, human," stick to the part that "John Jones, idealist," has laid out for him.

Let him make John Jones do his work better than anyone else.

When he has learned to get a day's work done every day, has got the habit of doing everything a little better than seems necessary, and has learned to keep a cheerful face turned ever toward the goal, he needn't worry about being recognized.

He will then stand head and shoulders above his fellows.

Moreover, what applies to John Jones applies to you and me also.

The 1918 peanut crop was much below normal. Alabama produced 4,610,000 bushels compared to 11,459,000 in 1918.

ASTHMA IS DANGEROUS

Folly To Disregard Its Warning

Asthma is not only a disagreeable affliction but a dangerous one. The constant difficult breathing, the choked up air passages, the struggle for air, the loss of rest, combine to force a great strain on the nervous system and heart—often too great a strain to stand.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a condition or to continually treat with ordinary narcotic medicines, drugs, inhalers, smokers, or douches which merely give temporary relief from the choking paroxysms and do not relieve or correct the real cause of the trouble.

Instead get from Liggitt's or any druggist a small bottle of Oxidase (essential salt tablets and take one at short intervals whenever distress is felt and one on going to bed. Instant relief is usually felt and in addition the effect of consistent treatment is to gradually bring about a greatly improved health condition as the symptoms of Asthma disappear forever. Oxidase is the successful prescription of a Worcester, Mass., physician and its treatment of Asthma, even in the very worst forms has probably never been excelled.

Liggitt and Lowell Pharmacy sells it and patients find it a safe, pleasant and inexpensive treatment to use.—Adv.

Think what Labor owes to Him!

UNTIL His thirtieth year the Master was the Carpenter of Nazareth.

Could He possibly forget those carpenter years when the years of His ministry began? Could the men who labor with their hands ever be far from His thought and prayers?

To such men, oppressed and driven, men bent by toil, with hopeless hearts, He spoke a phrase that flamed with power.

"You are sons of God," He told them.

Sons of God—brothers of their rulers and employers; with an equal right to happiness, to comfort and opportunity. All the hopes of Labor in all the centuries had their beginning in that splendid thought.

The Churches cooperating under the name of the Interchurch World Movement offer the program of the Master; and His Golden Rule.

"Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them."

By that rule the industry of the future must be directed. Its products must be not merely goods, but good; not merely wealth but happiness and character and joy.

If you believe these things, you believe in one of the fundamental purposes of the Churches and of their agent, the Interchurch World Movement.

And you have this month your chance to help. Whether you labor with hand or brain, whether you are inside the Church or out, you are a sharer in the benefits of the influence of Jesus Christ.

Help to make that influence the ruling spirit of the modern world. Help to make industry a spiritual enterprise, where men shall work together not in envy but in mutual respect—as brothers all, and "sons of God."

NEW JERSEY RETURNS

1832 Out of 2025 Districts
Give Wood Lead of 332
Over Johnson

NEWARK, N. J., April 28.—Major General Leonard Wood was leading Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California by only 332 votes in the New Jersey preferential presidential primary contest at 11 o'clock this morning. Revised returns showed the Californian had cut down his opponent's lead by 406 since 1 o'clock.

Returns for 1832 out of 2025 election districts, gave Wood 43,374 and Johnson 43,042.

Incomplete returns indicated that Wood had carried 13 out of the 21 counties in the state. Wood's vote was heaviest in the rural districts of the central and southern part of the state, while Johnson polled heavily in the industrial districts of the north.

United States Senators, Walter E. Edge and Joseph S. Freylinghuysen, pledged to the presidential choice of the voters as expressed at the primary, have been elected as members of the republican "big four" by substantial pluralities over their eight opponents. Former Governor Edward C. Stokes, pledged to Wood, seems assured of third place. Former Acting Governor William N. Runyan, pledged to Wood, is leading in the race for fourth place, although City Commissioner Thomas L. Raymond of New-

SAGAMORE CAMPERS ANNUAL DANCE

Everything is in readiness for the annual dancing party of the Sagamore Campers in Lincoln hall this evening and an exceptionally enjoyable evening is promised those who attend. Owing to the fact that most of the club members have been in the service during the past few years, the annual dancing party of the organization has not been held, and this year it is planned to make the affair more attractive than ever. The Capitol Jazz orchestra, with Frank Clark at the drums and Paul J. Angelo at the piano will furnish music.

MATRIMONIAL

A pretty wedding took place this morning when Mr. Stephen Curtis Garity, a well known young man of this city and Miss Catherine Teresa Sharkey, the popular soloist at the Sacred Heart church, were united in the bonds of matrimony, the ceremony being performed at 10 o'clock at the Sacred Heart church by the pastor, Rev. John P. Flynn, O.M.I. During the service appropriate hymns were sung by Messrs. John McMahon, George Kerwin and Andrew McCarthy, while a violin obbligato was given by Mr. Frank Deignan, Mr. William McCarthy presiding at the organ. The bride wore white satin with georgette and Irish lace and veil caught up with lilies of the valley and she carried bridal roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Lucy Sharkey, who was attired in pink satin with pearl trimmings and carried pink roses. The best man was Mr. Martin F. McCarthy. At the close of the ceremony the bride repaired to the home of the bride, 100 Hounse street, where a wedding breakfast was served by Lydon, the caterer, followed by a brief reception. The ushers at the home were Messrs. John Frawley and John W. Sharkey. Upon their return from an extended honeymoon trip to Washington and Baltimore the happy couple were welcomed by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McCarthy.

At noon today Mr. Emerille Byron and Miss Beatrice Derby were united in marriage. The ceremony being performed at the home of the bride, 225 Pine street, by Rev. E. F. West, pastor of the Chelmsford Street Baptist church. The couple who were unattended left at the close of the ceremony on a wedding trip and upon their return June 1 they will make their home at 15 Bond street.

Mr. Joseph Huot and Miss Maria Jacob were married this afternoon at 3 o'clock at St. Joseph's rectory, the ceremony being performed by the pastor, Rev. Eugene Turcotte, O.M.I. The bride wore white georgette and carried bridal roses. The witnesses were Messrs. Napoleon Huot and J. H. Racette, father and uncle of the bridegroom and bride respectively. At the close of the ceremony a wedding dinner was served.

ark, pledged to Wood; Mulford L. Ballard of East Orange and Thomas R. Layden of Paterson, both pledged to Johnson and former United States Attorney General John W. Griggs, pledged to Wood, are following close behind in the order named.

Gov. Edward I. Edwards, who has announced that he would carry the fight against prohibition onto the floor of the San Francisco convention was elected head of the democratic "big four." Democratic delegates-at-large were elected without opposition. Democratic voters did not have an opportunity to register their choice for president, there being no candidates named on the ballot, although all of the "big four" and virtually all of the district delegates are pledged to the candidacy of Gov. Edwards.

From This to Pump— Girls

The expressions of happiness and gratitude of several of his young lady patients for whom he prescribed the recently successful flesh forming product, known as three grain hypo-nutrient tablets, is related by a physician in one of the medical publications and it comes as a surprise to the ordinary layman to learn the heart throbs of distress which seems to affect so many young people who are abnormally thin. It is to know that the weight can be so readily increased by the use, regularly for several months, of this peculiarly named preparation, now obtainable of the best apothecary shops in sealed packages with complete instructions for self-administration.

FARMERS' BALL FRIDAY

The farmers' ball, to be conducted under the auspices of the Sacred Heart Social club, at the parochial hall, Friday evening, promises to be one of the most enjoyable social successes, yet sponsored by this young and enterprising organization.

Many novel features, wherein "Life on the Farm" will be intelligently depicted, have been arranged for the occasion. The grand march will be an enjoyable feature of the evening's festivities. Valuable prizes will be awarded the winners in this event. Judging from the large number of entries in this contest, a delightful pageant is assured. His Honor, Mayor Perry D. Thompson, Hon. James B. Casey, Rep. Thomas J. Corbett and Post Commander Luther B. Faulkner have kindly consented to act as judges of the prize-features march. In connection with the farmers' ball, the public is most cordially invited by the committee on arrangements, to witness the street parade tomorrow (Thursday) evening. James E. Burns has been chosen marshal of the parade and has appointed Michael J. Matthey chief aid, and Edward Jennings chief of staff. The parade will start from Moore street at 7 o'clock. In addition to the kayacks, a Ford tractor kindly loaned by the Ford Motor Co., will be a novel and interesting feature of the parade.

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor
SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.
Member of the Associated Press
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches transmitted to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published here.

The overall craze has already resulted in an increase in the price of these and other garments required by laborers who wear them continually and not spasmodically in pursuance of a rather foolish fad.

General Wood has shown considerable shrewdness in announcing that if nominated for president, he will select Will H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, as the manager of his campaign. That is done with the view of putting himself in rapport with the national machine.

Judging from the announcement from city hall as to another possible increase in water rates, it seems that we shall have to economize in water as well as in every thing else. It was supposed that when prohibition took the beer, there would never be any restriction upon the use of water.

Ex-speaker Champ Clark has announced that he would accept the democratic nomination for the presidency. Mr. Clark is probably the most consistent democrat in congress or we might say in the country, but it seems that democratic sentiment is not moving in his direction at the present time. Nevertheless, Mr. Clark's sterling democracy may gain full recognition at the convention.

The supreme court of this state has decided that public parades without police permits, are illegal. That decision should be self-evident although it is given on an appeal by the Boston radicals convicted in the Roxbury riot of May day last year. It is necessary in these disturbed times that no public parades should be allowed without an official permit from local authorities, as otherwise there might be a repetition of such scenes as occurred in Roxbury when the radicals set out to parade carrying the red flags of socialism and anarchy.

THE HOOVERITES

Lowell has now a Hoover club organized by a public mass meeting at which twenty citizens were present. The superior abilities of Mr. Hoover were graphically described by some of this political agents who actually set forth the advantages of an "international" president. Mr. Hoover is acknowledged to be an able engineer and a man who has won distinction in relief work in Europe during the war. He knows more of England and other European countries than he knows of the United States, for the reason that he spent most of his adult years in those countries as a manipulator of mining stocks. Had he spent his years in the United States instead of in Europe, he would now undoubtedly be a very eligible candidate for the presidency. One of his boomers has made the claim that as food administrator in this country, he learned more of our government and our institutions in a year or two than did other candidates during their entire lives. The claim is rather extravagant for belief, yet it is on this brand of boasting that Hoover is to be hoisted into the White House. We have more confidence in the good sense of the American people than to believe that such a thing is possible.

PLEA FOR TEACHERS

"If we provide generous salaries for the play-actors who minister only to the amusement of the public, and take pains to pay those who are not really necessary, how much more should we look after those who are molders of the style and character of our youth?" This familiar argument for higher pay for teachers was written in the year 534 by King Athalaric, descendant of barbarian Goths, in a letter addressed to the senate of Rome. He was making for the teachers of his city the self-same plea that may be heard in almost any community in America.

"Pleading for better pay, the teachers of our time point out that they cannot do their work at school properly so long as they must worry about making ends meet at home. Mark what King Athalaric said to the same purpose:

"Let them not have to try the philosophical problem of thinking about two things at once; but, with their minds at ease about their subsistence, devote themselves with all their might to the teaching of liberal arts."

Though 1400 years have elapsed since Athalaric spoke thus, the optimistic teaching profession does not yet despair of winning proper public recognition. But Kenneth C. Mills, an American educator, writing in The Review, observes: "If the grandson of a Goth could write so intelligently, have we a right to pride ourselves too much on our distance from the dark night of Gothic ignorance, if the same problems still confront us and if we are no less stupid in their solution?"—N. E. A.

Our present senators in point of ability, honor and honesty, will probably compare favorably with those of any other state; and it is a gross injustice to both, to publish a charge from a "riparian" demagogue, involving their integrity in public or private life. We believe radicals have been deported for statements less anarchistic than some made by Lawson in promoting his own candidacy for delegate at large to the republican convention.

CASE OF IRELAND

Lord Cecil in the house of commons criticizes the government administration in Ireland, claiming that if persisted in it will result in complete anarchy and possibly a triumph for the Irish republic. That is certainly an admission from a high authority that the Irish situation is considered very serious.

Lord Cecil is right so far as he blames the government for the present state of affairs in Ireland. When Mr. Redmond was the Irish leader, there was peace in Ireland, and during the first eighteen months of the war, Irishmen won renown by their deeds of valor in the ranks of the British army. They were then inspired by the fact that the home rule measure had become law and was soon to be put in operation. At the end of a year, however, through the willingness of the government to submit to dictation from the Ulster faction, it was decided to postpone the operation of the home rule law to the end of the war, with the unwarranted understanding that it would have to be amended to meet the approval of Ulster.

That was the turning point in the attitude of the Irish people towards the war. It was also the turning point from parliamentary methods to those of physical force in seeking justice for Ireland. These methods have become more violent every year since, for the reason that the government under the direction of Lloyd George, Bonar Law and Sir Edward Carson, has shown a decided determination to crush out the national spirit in Ireland and even to misrepresent and malign the Irish people abroad by a scurrilous system of propaganda.

The Irish people have apparently set out to assail British officials wherever they appear, whether in Dublin Castle or in the barracks of the hated Irish constabulary. Military rule prevails. The police and soldiery drove the people to desperation; but they are now being stubbornly resisted. Thousands of Sinn Fein leaders have been arrested and deported, but as in other struggles in the past, there are always men ready to fill the places made vacant by British injustice, so that this method, although it may sacrifice a great many lives, is doomed to utter failure. England is beginning to realize that if she retains Ireland as a colony she will have to give her full freedom to work out her own destiny. She is already convinced that the plan of Lloyd George to destroy Ireland's nationality by establishing minority rule in which an Ulster faction could dominate the rest of the country, must be abandoned. The next thing is to decide what the Irish will accept. On that point there is ample evidence, and the sooner England reaches a just decision in the matter the better it will be for her own interests, the better will be her relations with other powers whose friendship, like that of the United States, she values very highly. By persecuting the people of Ireland who are only sowing dragons' teeth wherever the Irish race or the friends of freedom are found among the nations of the earth.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

A regular meeting of Camp Four, Uniform Rank, L.O.O.F., M.U. was held last evening with Frank E. Bowles in the chair. It was voted to meet on the second and fourth Tuesdays in May and routine business was transacted. Interesting remarks were made by Brig. Gen. Bowles, Adj. Arthur DeLong, Lieut. Harry Stack and Second Lieut. Guilfoyle.

Minutina Council
Mrs. Margaret McNally entertained the members of the Minutina council entertainment committee at her home in Lane street last evening. In the course of the evening a business session was held with Mrs. Anna Holland in the chair and later an interesting paper prepared by Mrs. Susie Rigby was read by Mrs. Clara Donovan. Supper was served and musical numbers were given.

Lady Franklin Council
At a recent meeting of Lady Franklin council the following officers were elected: Associate councillor, Sister Holden; vice councillor, Brother Charles Richards; associate vice councillor, Sister Ethel Webster; guide, Sister Flint; inside guard, Brother Stack; outside guard, Sister Cooper; recording secretary, Sister Hattie Whitney; assistant recording secretary, Sister Edith Sargent; financial secretary, Lena Sawyer; treasurer, Brother Griffin.

At the next meeting these candidates will be installed. After the meeting had closed an impromptu entertainment of songs and music followed out a very enjoyable evening.

Knight's of Pythias
Members of Cavalier-Middlesex lodge, Knights of Pythias, have another busy night in prospect. The regular meeting this week, the rank of knight is to be conferred in full form upon three exquires and the entertainment committee has planned for a feast of strained clams after the rank work. It is expected that the deputy grand chancellor will be present.

A Worcester woman called Chief Avery of the fire department by telephone and asked him if he would send one of the fire companies to her house as she wanted the grass burned off her lawn and wanted a fire company on hand to make sure the fire didn't spread.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

Those people who are quite confused on a good Sunday afternoon as to where to while away the time would do well to take the car out to Robin Hill in Chelmsford. The car reaches very near the bottom of the hill and the walk to the top is not very tiresome if one takes it easy and trudges along not thinking of making any speed record. Those who may be lucky enough to enjoy an auto ride to the spiral to the summit, if pedestrians wish to cut across lots instead of following the road they may be able to reach the top faster than by auto.

On a windy day Robin Hill is well open to the breezes and to climb the look-out tower on such a day is a sport which has delighted hundreds. One Sunday recently the wind was so strong that the climbers to the observatory had to hold on to the stair railing to prevent accidents. The seemingly precarious position on the tower arouses thoughts of the experiences of sailors in the towers of the battleships on the high seas.

Once inside the tower cot a bird's-eye view of the country for some fifty miles around is afforded. The cities of Lawrence and Haverhill may be sighted, the mountains of New Hampshire and some claim that with strong glasses they can see parts of Boston. On one day recently the look-out man had five forest fires under surveillance, and was prepared to send notice to the nearest fire departments if any dangerous outbreaks of a conflagration were noted. The man in the tower has supervision of the fires which may occur in the woods for a radius of 15 miles around Robin Hill, and he is connected by telephone with all the fire departments and other officials charged with the care of the forests.

To climb the tower is particularly a great sport for the girls who, in most instances, consider it dangerous work on a windy day and so when a group of girls attempt to reach the top they are thrilled with the experience. Robin Hill is also a favorite place for amateur photographers, but their small cameras are not suited to landscape work.

In his attempt to prohibit smoking and spitting in the street cars, Thomas Lee, of the street railway company, has told me that he will secure the co-operation of the police department in the enforcement of the rules of the company and the board of health. He also will have new signs made for distribution in the electric cars and will see that the employees of the company themselves, will observe due caution about violation of rules in this respect. Mr. Lee wants it understood that smoking is not allowed in cars when they are closed. Signs designate that smoking is permissible in "rear seats of cars only when the cars are open" and "in the two rear longitudinal seats of the semi-convertible cars only when they are open."

Mr. Lee tells me that he will receive the co-operation of some of the mill and factory officials, whose employees frequent certain lines of the railway. In the enforcement of the warnings and instruction in regard to the law in this respect.

Somebody suggested the other day that it might be an economical scheme to have polling booths used in various parts of the city for the presidential primaries yesterday kept up until the state primaries next September. That would obviate the work and expense incidental to tearing down the booths, carting them away and then erecting them again in the fall. I put the matter up to Commissioner Marchand of the public property department and he said that while it would seem on the surface a needless waste of energy to take the buildings down and put them up again within such a short period of time, nevertheless, he believed that the booths would suffer considerable damage if allowed to remain up all summer. During the few months they are up in the fall, they are pretty thoroughly battered, the commissioner says, and youngsters out of school all summer would have plenty of time to exercise various modes of attack on the more or less frail structures. Accordingly, he plans to have them taken down.

I understand that Lowell is one of the six cities selected for a visit of the Near East relief party that is coming to Massachusetts from New York May 3, for one week. This is probably due to the fact that the executive secretary of the state committee on Near East relief is a former Lowell man, and was able to suggest the itinerary. The party is composed of eight members, among them Isaac Yonan, a native of Urmiah, Persia, and during the war, food commissioner in that country, and later commissioner of transport for its little army. It was he who beat the Bolsheviks to it at Heldcrabad, and at the head of a hundred Assyrian riflemen seized the abandoned Russian war supplies, and shipped wheat, barley, bacon, oil and dried vegetables to his own starving people. Later he attacked the Kurds who were looting the military depot, and got for his own army 1500 rifles and a million cartridges which were to have been used against the Armenians by the Kurds. Finally his army faced an overwhelming Turkish force, and retreated fighting, taking part in several battles. When the armistice was signed he brought his family to the United States, where he proposes to educate them. There are other members of the party equally interesting. This Near East party is on what it calls a whirlwind tour for purposes of information. It reaches a city after being booked for short addresses at all the public meetings scheduled for that day. In Springfield, for example, which is the first stopping place, the members expect to appear at the meeting of the Kiwanis club, the dinner of the world war veterans, at a Y.W.C.A. banquet, and at six of the leading factories, where the employees will assemble during the noon hour. They will probably arrive in Lowell on Thursday of next week.

After she had come home from the party in a cab of old-fashioned variety, little Ethel was telling her mother some of her adventures. "And did you enjoy the ride home, dear?" asked the mother. "O, it was very thrilling!" exclaimed Ethel. "Down at Madison street the horse suddenly stopped and backed right onto the pavement, and the driver had to get down and drag him back into the street."

"Yes, dear," said the mother, wisely, "that must have been what Englishmen call a 'jibbing horse'."

"That wasn't what the cabman called it," remarked thoughtful Ethel.

Pastoral Propaganda
No doubt people would flock to the country, if they ever heard the advantages of farm life.

And the fanner! What a wonderful chance among all those suckers—the poor fish. But let her beware the rakes.

Nor need one hesitate on account of expense, for even if dollars are scarce, there are plenty of cents—to say nothing of the mint.

MR. HOCKMEYER RESIGNS SCHOOL BOARD MEETING

Community Service Head No Action Taken on Teachers' Organization's Request for Increase

Not to Consider Re-Election —Makes Generous Gifts

Otto Hockmeyer, prominent resident, president of Lowell Community Service since its incorporation and its guiding spirit and main financial power, has resigned his office to take effect tonight and under no consideration will consider re-election. He plans to leave the city very soon on a protracted journey to his old home in England.

His desire to retire from the presidency has been unofficially known for some time although the formal resignation was not announced until last night in a letter to George E. King, treasurer of the corporation. In the same letter Mr. Hockmeyer announced gifts to the Community Service club in Dutton street, the Girls' Community Service club in the Runels building and the executive committee in charge of the historical park to be given in June, totalling $11,000. The gifts are given in the form of underwritings, whereby he pledges $1000 a month for the remaining eight months of the year to the Dutton street club; $1000 a month for two months to the Girls' club and $1000 to the pageant.

Mr. Hockmeyer's letter to Treasurer King follows: 170 Hollywood avenue, Lowell, Mass., April 21, 1920. To the Board of Directors of Lowell Community Service, Inc., Mr. George E. King, Treasurer.

Dear Sir: It is perhaps unnecessary for me to tender my resignation as president of the Lowell Community Service, Inc., my term expiring automatically on April 25, when the election of the new board takes place, but I have no wish to prolong the matter. I have a firm determination to accept the Men's Community Service, Inc., as a director. As the board of directors will know, as their instrument, have had but one aim in view and that has been to present to the community a responsibility, accepted by the board of directors, in that they undertook to ask the people of Lowell to organize, carry on and protect certain projects for the good of Lowell, having special community interest.

I did not allow the activities in existence and or needed in the city to be given up, but it is now a question of support from the public, directly to the Community Service center and indirectly to the Men's Community club, or indirectly through support to the Lowell Community Service, Inc., and for the public to stand behind the new board of directors. However, I write to you, as treasurer, to assure you that whatever action is taken, that the Community Service center for child care, the Men's Community club, and the Lowell Community Service, Inc., and for the public to stand behind the new board of directors. However, I write to you, as treasurer, to assure you that whatever action is taken, that the Community Service center for child care, the Men's Community club, and the Lowell Community Service, Inc., and for the public to stand behind the new board of directors.

Should the directors elect to promote any other activities, using the membership money for same, there is no objection to their doing so, drawing the expense of the clubs upon and within the guaranteed and underwritten amount.

In handing over and presenting to the community of Lowell their Lowell Community Service, Incorporated, an organization with over 100 members, and having provided such support to the established clubs and activities as the responsibility for one who accepted that duty, I resign my office and the people of Lowell will assume their own community service in the Lowell Community Service, Incorporated, an organization now fully in their hands.

Yours faithfully,
OTTO HOCKMEYER.
Mr. Hockmeyer's successor, as well as a new board of 15 directors will be chosen at the annual meeting of Lowell Community Service, Inc., to be held this evening at the club in Dutton street. At the present time the corporation has a membership of $100 and all such over 21 years of age are entitled to vote for the new officers tonight.

As is well known, Lowell Community Service is the offspring of Lowell War Camp Community Service, wholly a war time organization. As well as taking a whole-hearted interest in many other activities, Mr. Hockmeyer gave particular attention to this war camp work and was instrumental in piloting the organization through the transition stages and finally establishing it upon a peace time basis. Incorporation came next and this, too, was ably handled by him.

From a mere handful of members, Lowell Community Service has grown through Mr. Hockmeyer's indefatigable work to a membership of $100, representing approximately $1500. The activities now being sponsored are: Men's club, in Dutton street; employment bureau; Girls' club, in the Runels building; information booth, at Middlesex street depot and Lowell Community council. The Dutton street club long has been headquarters for Lowell post, American Legion and a restaurant, lunch room, game and recreation rooms and bowling alleys are a few of the advantages it offers to former service men and civilian members.

Who will succeed Mr. Hockmeyer at the head of the work is not known.

CRICAPPOO GIRLS' DANCE
About 500 young people attended the first annual dance of the Chicapo Girls which was held in Lincoln hall last evening. It was a very pleasing affair and the results, both social and financial, were gratifying to the officers of the dance. The long program of dance numbers provided adequate opportunity for all those present to take part in the merriment which continued until midnight. The officers of the dance were as follows: Miss Mae Flannery, general manager; Miss May Nolan, assistant general manager; Miss Helen Flynn, floor director; Miss Barbara Doughty, treasurer.

She Is Voted the Prettiest and Fairest of 300 "Red-Heads"

BERKELEY, Cal., April 27.—The heroine of the annual "Parthenon," the University of California college girls' open air spring masque this year, had to be red-headed, so the management called together the 300 Ullan blondes of the college and chose the fairest of them all. She is Miss Marion McCreey, a Berkeley girl. The hundred who saw the allegory voted her not only the "prettiest red-head" in the college but the fairest member of the cast of over 1000 girls.

abolition of the Middlesex street crossing, and these were explained by Engineer Dow, Mr. Alexander said they are the same ones drawn in 1914 and brought up to date in regard to estimated cost. This cost, he said, for a four-track plan, is today in the neighborhood of $3,300,000. This may be compared, if you please, with the estimated cost of the plans submitted six years ago by City Engineer Stephen Kearney, which was $617,000, exclusive of land damages.

Although the plans were spread out upon a table and explained by Mr. Dow, they were there more as a curiosity, for Mr. Alexander held out no hope for their development or crystallization into actual work.

Entirely New Way to Banish Superfluous Hair

Why should any woman continue to wear an ugly, humiliating growth of hair on her face, now that it is known this can be completely and quickly removed, roots and all, by the new phenol process? The process is new, is compared at all with the electrolytic, electrical or shaving methods. Phenol is non-odorous, non-irritating, non-poisonous—so harmless it could be eaten without any bad effect. Best of all, the hairs come out entire, even the roots, before one's very eyes. The skin is left as smooth and hair-free as a child's.

Anyone who purchases a stick of phenol from the druggist and follows the simple directions, is bound to be pleased and delighted.—Adv.

deficit of $6,178,151 and in 1919, last year, at a net deficit of $5,771,532.11. This shows that a little better condition prevailed last year than during the year just previous, but the road is running into a hole just as fast as its engine can speed it and unless there is every possible bit of co-operation on the part of communities served by the Boston & Maine and the most careful expenditure of every dollar, the road will again become insolvent.

Mr. Alexander spoke of the return of the road to private control and the government guarantee against operation at a deficit for six months, beginning March 1. "If the government had not made this guarantee," he said, "I believe the road would have been bankrupt inside of 30 days."

Chairman Butler asked if the financial condition of the road should be the only consideration in the question of the abolition of the crossing.

"No, that should not be the only consideration," replied Mr. Alexander, "but if the road headed the demands of all the communities which seek changes in their railroad accommodations, the system would become bankrupt in short order."

Elements of Danger

James J. Owens spoke at length regarding the elements of danger and the great public inconvenience at the Middlesex street crossing. "Not only is it dangerous and a blockade to traffic, but the railroad traffic has increased there 50 per cent, I am told," he said. "Since the new round house and yards were opened at Middlesex Village."

"The district in the vicinity of the depot has been ripe for the proper development for some time," he continued, "and yet we can do no building there and no changing-over because we do not know what the Boston & Maine is going to do with the crossing. The situation has been the same for years and as far as I can see will remain the same for the next 10 or 15 years."

"Moreover, I am not convinced that the road is as near bankruptcy or insolvency as it would like people to believe. The only reason this matter has been hanging fire so long in Lowell is that we have been too passive."

There is an old adage that the squealing pig gets the most swill and I think it is about time for us to make a noise. If we don't and the time comes when the road says it is able to finance a few such propositions, while we have a great need, the work will be done somewhere else and in a city which has made more of a 'holler' than we have."

Lawrence Cummings backed back to the year 1855, when, he said, he attended a hearing on the question of the abolition of the Middlesex street grade crossing and asked what the city might now expect after 33 years of stagnation.

Road's Share of Expense

In reply to a question put by one of the committeemen, Mr. Alexander admitted that the Boston & Maine would only be required to shoulder 60 per cent of the total cost of a new crossing, with the city assuming 10 per cent, and the other 30 per cent, to be assessed to the state.

The plans brought by Engineer Dow were in substance the same as those drawn by City Engineer Kearney and fully explained in this paper yesterday. They call for four main line tracks instead of two and eliminate the Western avenue crossing as well as the one in question. They vary from the Kearney plans somewhat in regard to the amount of grade, but show a grade extension north and south from Middlesex street of approximately the same distance. The railroad plans call for the moving of the curve in the track at the depot a few feet westerly to care for four tracks.

Engineer Dow gladly offered a set of these plans to the committee and they were accepted.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton.

BILL BLACKBIRD TELLS A FIB

Bill Blackbird's plan was this: He thought that if his name came so far down on the bird list that he wasn't going to get out of Scrub-Up Land until Decoration Day maybe, why he'd pretend he was somebody else and stand a better chance to get away early to the Land-Where-Spring-Was-Coming.

So he peeped over Nick's shoulder at the big bird book with its lovely pictures, which the twins and Rubadub were copying onto the real birds. Right on the page before him was a beautiful bird all orange and black whom he recognized at once. "So that's the person who is to get his freedom next!" cried Bill. "I'll just pretend I'm he, and then I'll get painted up at once. Me for the Land-Where-Spring-Is-Coming, and the nice, juicy bugs!"

Well, pretty soon, Nick finished coloring Sid Song-Sparrow's gray shirt, which he fastened on with little brown studs, and handed him his brown cap.

As Sid flew away whistling happily into the sunshine, Nick called, "Next!" Just like they do in your Daddy's barber shop, when it's somebody's turn to get his hair cut. That was Bill's chance! He stepped right up out of line, like you've seen cheeky people do at a ticket window when they haven't any right to at all, and said: "That's me, I guess." He was too much excited to bother with grammar!

Nick took a good look at Bill, then at the picture in the Bird Book. "What's your name?" he asked. "I'm an oriole," fibbed Bill. "My name's Oliver."

Nick looked at the orange and black picture again. "I guess that's right," he said doubtfully, "but you don't look like it. You must have got awfully dirty down south. Mr. Oriole. Nancy, where's the orange paint?"

After Bill Blackbird said he was an oriole, Nick and Nancy got the yellow paint and made him look exactly like the picture of the oriole in the bird book. They put on a gorgeous orange waistcoat, and painted wonderful patches of color on the rest of his clothes. Bill was the most gorgeous thing you ever looked at, and when he caught a glimpse of himself in the mirror he swelled up 'til he nearly burst.

"Fine feathers certainly do make fine birds, don't they?" he remarked, smoothing his vest.

Now if Bill had only kept quiet he would probably have been out of Scrub-Up Land in about five more seconds, following Robin Redbreast and Betinda Bluebird to the Land-Where-Spring-Was-Coming.

But it's pretty hard to make a voice like Bill's sound like anything else but—just Bill's. There isn't another one anywhere quite like it.

"What's that?" asked the Magical Mushroom curiously, coming in just then for some soap for Rubadub the fairymen, to wash the dirt off the mole's nose.

Bill repeated his remark.

"Who is this gentleman, Nick?" asked the Mushroom coming closer.

"Oliver Oriole," explained Nick. "He comes next, you know, for his picture is next in the bird book."

"Looks a little large for Oliver, doesn't he?" remarked the Mushroom, looking Bill over from head to foot.

Bill shifted uneasily.

"But perhaps he's grown since I saw him last," went on the fairy.

"You never can tell what a change of climate will do for a person, or perhaps the beetles down south are fiercer than ours."

"Yes, yes, they are!" said Bill eagerly, anxious to be gone. "They're very fine! Big as houses! Ahem! I mean they're quite large!"

The Mushroom was quite close to Bill now, listening carefully to everything he said, and slowly a queer little smile spread over his face.

will relieve him of all duties connected with elections.

The Attorney-General's Opinion

Following is the text of the opinion received at city hall today by Mr. Flynn from the office of the secretary of the commonwealth:

Hon. Albert P. Langtry, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Dear Sir: You have asked my opinion as to whether in the matter of elections in the city of Lowell you are to recognize the city clerk or the election commissioners.

The pertinent facts are these: By statute 1920, chapter 154, an election commission in the city of Lowell was established. Section 1 creates the commission and further states:

"All duties incumbent upon the city clerk in his capacity as a member of the registrar of voters are hereby transferred to the commission."

The first sentence of Section 4 is substantially as follows:

"The commission shall have general supervision of all elections; the appointment, supervision and compensation of precinct officers; the location of polling booths; and may employ such persons as they may deem necessary in the performance of their duties."

Section 5 is as follows:

"So much of Chapter 645 of the Acts of 1911 as is inconsistent herewith is hereby repealed."

Prior to the passage of Statute 1920, Chapter 154, elections in Lowell were governed by the provisions of Statutes 1910, Chapter 325, and by the city charter (St. 1911, c. 145). These statutes imposed certain duties on the mayor and aldermen, city clerk and board of registrars, and by section 3 of the 1913 act these powers in the city of Lowell were vested in the board of election commissioners.

St. 1911, Chapter 645, in regard to elections, provides as follows:

"The laws of the commonwealth relating to annual city elections, special elections of city officers, special elections in cities, election officers, voting places for elections, election apparatus and books, calling and conduct of elections, manner of voting at elections, counting and re-counting of votes at elections, corrupt practices and penalties shall apply to all elections under this act, including preliminary elections, except as is otherwise provided herein."

There is a certain ambiguity in the 1920 act as regards the provisions of sections 1 and 2. Section 1 gives the commission general supervision of all elections and Section 2 provides that all duties incumbent on the city clerk in his capacity as a member of the registrar of voters are hereby transferred to the commission.

The question is whether the city clerk retains any duties as city clerk, in regard to the elections in the city of Lowell, in my opinion he does not retain any duties, all of which are placed in the hands of the election commission.

Section 5 of the 1920 act repeals so much of St. 1911, c. 645, as is inconsistent therewith, and it is clear that certain of the provisions of St. 1911, c. 645, to elections in the city of Lowell, are repealed. Such duties as the city clerk had in regard to elections prior to the passage of the 1920 act were derived from the provisions of Section 20, of the 1911 act. As the provisions under which these duties were derived are now expressly repealed, it follows that Section 4 of the 1920 act, giving the commission general supervision of elections, gives to them such powers of supervision as the city clerk formerly had under the provision of law which has been repealed.

It is clear that it was the intention of the legislature to give to the election commission of the city of Lowell powers similar to those enjoyed by the election commissioners in the city of Boston, and as there is no special provision withholding from them any of the powers and duties formerly enjoyed by other city officials, the act should be construed to give them all of those powers.

Very truly yours,
J. WESTON ALLEN,
By LELAND POWERS,
Attorney General.

SUFFERING OF YOUNG WOMEN

This Letter Tells How it May be Overcome—all Mothers Interested.

Fort Dodge, Ia.—"From the time my daughter was 13 years old until she was 16 she suffered so badly each month that sometimes I had to call in the doctor. She had headaches, backache, and such pains and cramps that she would have to stay in bed two or three days. She became terribly run down in health and at last a friend who had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound told her about it and she has used sixteen bottles, and we always have it in the house. She feels fine now and she has no trouble at all each month. We all praise it and advise our friends who suffer to use your wonderful medicine."—Mrs. MARY MANDERLO, 1005 S. 16th St. & 10th Avenue, Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Girls who are troubled as Miss Manderlo was, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

It is the wonderful combination of roots and herbs, together with the skill and care used in its preparation which has made this famous medicine so successful in the treatment of female ills.

For Women's Troubles

headaches, dizziness, languor, etc., there are many causes, but when aggravated by a chronic derangement of the digestive organs, they are doubly disagreeable. A torpid liver or overburdened stomach, is not conducive to happiness.

Perfect health and comfort depend in a great measure upon the perfect condition of the stomach, intestines and allied organs.

They eliminate the secretions of indigestible matter in the intestines, purge the liver, stimulate the tissues, send pure, invigorating blood through the system, energize the nerve cells. Health will soon return and morbid conditions disappear. That's why they are so popular, and why in the cause of health

BERLIN COMMENT ON LATEST ALLIED NOTE

BERLIN, April 27.—Conflicting French, British and Italian views were compromised in framing the final allied statement issued at the San Remo conference, according to the view of newspapers here.

"This statement," says the Tagblatt, "is somewhat sharply formulated, but if Germany has not yet indicated what she is able and willing to pay in reparation and indemnification it is because the special commission of financial experts that has been studying the question has been unable to achieve definite results."

A member of the allied conference is cited by the Vossische Zeitung as saying that "Premier Millerand prevailed in the matter of form, but Premier Nitti in the matter of fact." This newspaper's San Remo correspondent views the situation as promising well for Germany if the chancellor at the forthcoming verbal negotiations shows more adroitness than has been manifested in recent German notes, which, he says, "have been deplorable examples of diplomatic awkwardness."

Opposition organs are not sanguine about the issue of the verbal discussions, while the Deutsch Zeitung says: "Neither Chancellor Mueller nor Foreign Minister Koester are men to whom such a task should be entrusted."

SALARY INCREASES AT YALE

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 28.—Increased salaries for instructors and assistant professors at Yale university, effective July 1, were specifically explained in an official statement issued through the university's secretary's office today. Instructors will receive from $1500 to $2000, and assistant professors from $2000 to $2500. The corporation recently authorized the new figures.

A Masonic directory of the Ohio State university, now in press, shows that there are 500 Masons in the student body of the university.

Nature's Strong Man IS THE MAN WITH FRESH, RED BLOOD

The stomach is the center of the body from which radiates our vitality, strenuousness, our fighting strength. A healthy stomach turns the food we eat into nourishment for the blood stream and the nerves. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery refreshes and tones up the stomach walls. Removes the poisonous gases from the system.

The first day you start to take this reliable medicine, impure germs and accumulations begin to separate in the blood and are then expelled through the liver, bowels and kidneys. Get Dr. Pierce's to-day from any medicine dealer; it is a powerful blood purifier and tonic.

York, N. Y.—"I have great pleasure in sending a testimonial that others may know what Dr. Pierce's medicine has done for me. For some length of time I have been troubled with my liver and indigestion and have received so much benefit from using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery that my health is very much improved. I would recommend this remedy to all who are troubled with the same diseases. I am satisfied that it will do everything claimed for it."

HEARD STREET AND SEWER PETITIONERS

Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy held hearings on a number of street and sewer petitions at his office in city hall last evening. There was no opposition to any of the projects. Each petition had one or more proponents present. The petitions included the following: Dr. Pierre Brunelle, sewer in Seventh avenue a distance of 50 feet from Moody street; Charles H. McIntire, sewer in Princeton street as far as the proposed sewer in Baldwin street; John Burgess, drainage of the brook crossing Eugene street; Alphonse Hissore, sewer in Denton street from No. 34 to Easton street; Ralph C. Norton, that Chatham street be accepted; Joseph Brault, that Melvin street be accepted from No. 37; Michael T. Riley, that Upham street be accepted from Stevens to South Wilder street; Nifred Germaine, that Ferry lane be accepted; Mrs. Anna J. Crowley, that Bunker Hill street be accepted. The commissioner took the petitions under advisement.

ROTARY DRAMATIC CLUB

Entertains Under the Auspices of League of Catholic Women

"Apartments to Let," the celebrated comedy of English life, was presented by the Rotary Dramatic club before an appreciative audience that filled the Colonial theatre in Middlesex street to capacity last evening. Given under the auspices of the League of Catholic Women and for the benefit of the Catholic women's diocesan centre which it is planned to erect in Boston, the affair attracted residents of all sections of the city and most assuredly the diocesan centre fund was materially increased.

The cast presenting the play was practically the same as that which appeared in the comedy a few months ago when given under the auspices of the Y.M.C.I. If anything, the various characters seemed even more at home in their parts than at the time of the previous performances and every line was given without hesitation and with an appreciation of its comedy qualities most pleasing to the audience. The plot in itself furnishes several hours of almost continuous laughter and as carried out by the players last evening it provided an evening of excellent entertainment. Each member of the cast bore his or her part admirably and contributed a measure to the complete success of the performance. The cast was as follows:

Alfred Hastings.....Dr. Joseph Jansen
Tom McLow.....William Moss
Theodore Bender.....John McNabb
Josephine Bender.....Edith Lyons
Franklin Bender.....Mary Carmody
Mr. Robert Pettibone.....Thomas Carlin
Rosaella Pettibone.....Mrs. John McNabb
Emily Pettibone.....Bela Gendrus
Christopher Dabney.....James Clancy
Judson Langhorne.....Charles Keyes
Pitt O'Connell.....Mary Graves
Augustus McSmith.....Sam O'Neill
Victor Smythe.....Charles Smith
Thompson.....John Green
Ballin.....M. Finnegan
To William E. O'Connell, who directed the comedy and Thomas Beane, the stage director, much credit is also due for their part in the success of the performance.

The league orchestra under the direction of Miss Marie J. C. O'Donnell furnished musical numbers during the evening and as usual, was thoroughly enjoyed.

The committee in charge of the affair included Mrs. Andrew J. Halpin and Mrs. Theo J. Bernhardt.

The ushers were as follows: Misses Doris Handley, Louise Mahoney, Isabel McQuade, Rose Q. Leary, Dorothy McAdams, Anna J. Maguire, Myrtle Rooney, Rose Geary, Georgianna Keith, Lillian Burns, Mae Burns, and Grace Donehue.

REFUSED TO WELCOME PRINCE OF WALES

LONDON, April 28.—Maori tribesmen, formerly enemies of the British in the Maori war, refused to be represented at Rotorua in welcoming the Prince of Wales, upon his arrival there, says a Central News despatch from Auckland. They pointed out their presence would associate them with other tribes, against which they made a protest.

Chiefs of the Maoris threatened if the prince did not stop at their village to receive them, they would hold up his train by lying down in front of it. They finally promised not to create a disturbance if permitted to welcome the royal visitor.

Preach the Gospel

IF COMMUNITY SERVICE DOES NOT RESULT FROM THE CHRISTIANITY PREACHED, THEN IT IS TIME TO PREACH THE TRUE CHRISTIANITY.

"The Teachings of Christ When Practiced Are Successful As Always."

"Help Spread the Gospel!" but don't deify "Social Schemes, Leagues and Orders of All Kinds," claiming "That They Have Failed." How Can You Judge? These Efforts for Humanity May Perhaps Be and Probably Are Practical Christianity,—"Teachings of Christ When Practiced."

Self-interested, Self-centered Christianity is just as great a menace as any other Extreme of Selfishness, when it can see no Good outside its own limited and self-restricted sphere. This narrow policy is being corrected—the circle is being enlarged, broadened, and even internationalized.

Christianity needs no control, let it practice, let it be in the heart of each individual. "Condemn Not and Ye Shall Not Be Condemned." Christianity has to do with Humanity. We are all Humanity. We are all Christians at heart, but, if our Christianity costs us nothing, is only self-centered and makes no sacrifice for others, for other groups nor for other Nations, it is misguided and needs expanding.

Yes, "Help Spread The Gospel," but don't lose sight of the practice. Condemn no man's faith so long as he practices his Christianity for all Humanity.

Can We Ignore Community Service?

Lowell Community Service, Incorporated, must now be supported by the people of Lowell with their individual memberships and morally supported by its Associate Members—the Organizations.

It Is No Longer the Responsibility of the Few

TOTAL MEMBERSHIPS TO DATE $429
TOTAL PAID UP DUES TO DATE $4509.85

All persons having in their possession membership cards for distribution or signed membership cards are requested to return same and make an accounting on or before April 28th. If you are unable to bring these cards in, telephone 5007 and an authorized messenger will call for them.

Everybody in Lowell a member. Every organization in Lowell an associate member.

Join before Wednesday, April 28th, and attend the election. Annual meeting Wednesday, April 28th, at 8 o'clock, at the Lowell Community Club, 175 Dutton St.

Mother's Faith Proves Merit

Depends on Father John's Medicine After Eight Years' Successful Trial

Eight years ago Mrs. E. W. Willard, of Hartford, Conn., first began using Father John's Medicine. In a letter written a short time ago she says "Father John's Medicine has always given very satisfactory results for our children. I am sending you a picture of my daughter Marion, aged five years and my son Leon, aged four years. They have both been troubled with bronchitis at times very badly. After taking Father John's Medicine they get relief. It is the only medicine we can get them to take." (Signed) Mrs. E. W. Willard, 210 Franklin Ave., Hartford, Conn.

In the spring the body cells need help in repairing and rebuilding to resist the effect of heat and its handicaps. Father John's Medicine being free from drugs and alcohol and based on one of Nature's greatest food medicines, is easily digested and promptly made use of by body cells. It has been successfully used for more than 60 years.—Adv.
